DRONES MUST GO WHEN TEDDY COMES

Police Prepare to Clear City of Vagrants Before Dedication.

MUST MOVE ON IF YOU HAVE NO OCCUPATION

The Workhouse, or Hours to Leave Town, the Alternatives Offered to Those Unable to Say Where They Work.

"I'm a thinkin' drinks will be plenty durin' them days when Teddy Roosevelt and Grover Cleveland comes here," said the master of the growler at a Market street saloon, where men to whom time is not exactly money congregate.

"They will be that, providin' you'se wants to drink from the purlin' brook or the ole oaken bucket," said a big policeman who had overheard the remark of the Master of the Growler. The interruption was an unwelcome one, but the Master of the Growler and his clan, with forced smiles and assumed geniality, waited for further information.

"I'm here right now to tell all you'se guys to move on an' it goes too," said the bluecoat. Its the pure air and rooral delights of the country for you'se—or the wurks. You'se takes you'se choice."

"Where do you work," is the question that thousands of men have answered or attempted to answer during the past 24 hours. If the reply was unsatisfactory the alternative of leaving the city or of going to the workhouse was offered.

Crowds which were seen a week ago in Market street and many other places have been thinned out and the few who lounge about are men who have employment or who are keeping a weather eye out for policemen.

It is the intention of the police to clear the city of mendicants and petty thieves before the dedication crowds arrive.

DEDICATION HOLIDAY GRANTED

School Board Decides That Children Had Better See Parade in Company With Parents.

Thursday, April 30, will be a holiday for St. Louis schools, but the Board of Education at a meeting held Wednesday evening decided it could not assume the responsibility of guardianship for the children who are to take part in the World's Fair dedication ceremonies. It was thought better to let the children go with their parents.

Plans were discussed for the exhibition to be made by the St. Louis schools at the World's Fair. The ultimate cost will be about $20,000.

Equipment for the laboratories of the McKinley High School was ordered and high school cadets are to have new uniforms.

CAN'T FIND HIS RELATIVES

Luther E. Grider, Back From Philippines, Was Supposed to Be Dead.

Luther E. Grider, a soldier home on furlough from the Philippines, is searching for his family, who believe him dead, and would like to get tidings of them. Grider enlisted three years ago in his home at Springfield, Ill., leaving his father mother and sister there. When he reached Springfield, ten days ago, he was told that his parents, believing him dead, had moved to St. Louis, and were living at 1033 Morrison avenue. On going to this address Grider discovered that they had left the preceding week, giving no address. The father's name is M. L. Grider, and his sister's name is Ethel. Young Grider's address is 711 South Broadway.

FORFEITED A $200 BOND

L. T. Osborne Fails to Appear in Judge Tracy's Court to Answer a Charge of Disturbing the Peace.

S. T. Osborne was fined $10 by Judge Tracy Thursday morning by default, and his bondsman, F. R. Lindsay, both of 2807 Locust street, was given until April 27 to bring Osborne into court, or show good cause why the latter did not appear, otherwise the bond of $200 will be declared forfeited.

Osborne, it was proven, had disturbed the peace of a Mrs. Cummings, who roomed in the same house with Osborne.

Police were summoned and when they arrived found Osborne locked in his room. He opened the door and surrendered when they threatened to break in.

LACKED HARMONY, TOOK PIANO

Action Culminated Today When Mrs. Olga Ruhland Obtained a Divorce From Her Husband, William H.

Mrs. Olga Ruhland was granted a divorce Thursday morning from William H. Ruhland, Jr., custody of their two children, Laura, aged 9, and Edmund, aged 7, and alimony of $6 a week, by Judge Taylor.

During the divorce proceedings much bitterness has come between the families and legal complications of this trouble are still pending.

Mr. Ruhland makes him home with his father, William H. Ruhland, Sr., and the charge in petition was drunkenness and abuse.

After the separation, Dec. 16, 1902, William H. Ruhland, Sr., went to the home of Mrs. Ruhland, who was then living with her mother, the widow of the late Henry Pins, and took a piano from the residence that Mrs. Ruhland claimed as hers, displaying a writ of replevin.

The rights of the piano were contested in Justice Kleiber's court last December and Mrs. Ruhland awarded either the piano or $200. She took the money and later instituted suit in the Circuit Court for $10,000 against William H. Ruhland, Sr., alleging damages from assault at the time he took the piano and she resisted his right.

THE WEATHER INDICATIONS.

For St. Louis and vicinity—Increasing cloudiness Thursday night; probably showers Friday.

Missouri—Increasing cloudiness and probably showers Friday and in west portion Thursday night; warmer in southwest portion Thursday night; southerly winds.

Tennessee and Kentucky—Fair Thursday night and Friday.

NORTHERN SECURITIES TRUST SMASHED BY GOVERNMENT

Morgan and Hill Lose Famous Merger Case, Involving Great Northern and Northern Pacific.

COMBINATION VIOLATES SHERMAN TRUST LAW

Unanimous Verdict Holds Giant Corporation to Be Unlawful and in Restraint of Trade.

The United States government is winner and J. Pierpont Morgan and James J. Hill are losers in the famous Northern Securities merger case, a decision in which was handed down simultaneously in the United States Circuit Court of Appeals in St. Louis and St. Paul this morning.

The unanimous opinion of Judges Thayer, Caldwell, Vandeventer and Sanborn was that the big corporation combining the Northern Pacific, Great Northern and Burlington railroads was unlawful and formed in restraint of trade.

The decision forbids the company to perform any of the functions for which it was organized.

The court gives permission to the Northern Securities Co. to return the stock to the persons from whom it was acquired, but prohibits the corporation from any other action.

The opinion was written by Judge Thayer of St. Louis, and is concurred in by Judges Caldwell, Sanborn and Vandeventer.

It was filed in the United States Court at St. Paul, 10 o'clock Thursday morning, and was filed in duplicate at St. Louis at the same time.

Combination in Restraint of Trade.

The language of the pertinent part of the decision is:

"The decree in favor of the United States will accordingly be entered to the following effect:

"Adjudging that the stock of the Northern Pacific and of the Great Northern Railway companies now held by the Northern Securities Co. was acquired by virtue of a combination among the defendants in restraint of trade and commerce in such states as the anti-trust act denounces as illegal; enjoining the Northern Securities Co. from acquiring or attempting to acquire further stock of either of the said companies; also enjoining it from voting such stock at any meeting of stockholders of either of said railroad companies or exercising or attempting to exercise any control, supervision or direction over the acts of said companies or either of them by virtue of the holding of such stock, likewise enjoining them from paying any dividends to the Northern Securities Co. on account of said stock, or permitting or suffering the Northern Securities Co. to exercise any control whatsoever over the corporate act of said companies, or to direct the policy of either of said companies, and finally permitting the Northern Securities Co. to return and transfer to the stockholders of the Northern Pacific and the Great Northern Railroad any and all shares of stock of both corporations which it may have received from such stockholders in exchange for its own shares, or to make such transfer and assignment to such person or persons as are now the holders and owners of its own stock originally issued in exchange for the stock of said companies."

Hill Conceived Great Merger.

The Northern Securities Co. was conceived by the brain of President James J. Hill, who, after building the Great Northern Railroad, found that competition of the Northern Pacific disarranged his plans.

The Northern Securities Co., capitalized at $400,000,000, merged the Northern Pacific, the Great Northern, the Burlington and the auxiliary branches of all these roads. Hill interested with him in its formation J. Pierpont Morgan and many other noted railway magnates and men known in finance.

Shortly after its formation, Gov. Van Sant of Minnesota instituted action against the company in the Supreme Court of that state. The states of Washingon and Montana also prepared to make similar action if Gov. Van Sant's case resulted in victory. The attorney-generals' of these states sent representatives to Washington to consult with Attorney-General Knox concerning procedure.

The Supreme Court of Minnesota declared it had no jurisdiction, and suit was then begun at St. Paul in the United States Circuit Court by legal representatives of the United States.

It was alleged that the merger violated the provisions of the Sherman anti-trust law; and further, that it conflicted with the constitutional provision declaring against measures in restraint of trade. Both of these charges are sustained in the opinion delivered Thursday.

During the progress of litigation against the Northern Securities Co., the examination of President Hill and J. Pierpont Morgan took place in New York City.

Parallel Line Law Invoked.

After the dismissal of his suit in the Minnesota courts, the attorney-general of Minnesota made application to the United States court, alleging that the formation of the merger conflicted with Minnesota state laws regarding competing parallel lines.

The case was set for hearing at St. Louis and the judges having gone over all the testimony, announced that they desired only the arguments of attorneys to be presented.

In their depositions Morgan and Hill declared that the merger was not in restraint of trade, and that it was of benefit to the entire nation.

President Hill explained that the Burlington was acquired because it was necessary to have an outlet to the Atlantic coast and that the Northern Pacific and Great Northern had lowered rates since the merger had been formed.

The Northern Securities Co. took over $125,000,000 of Great Northern preferred common stock of the Northern Pacific amounting to $155,000,000, and all of the Burlington's stock. Within a short time all the stock of the three roads and their branch lines had been transferred.

Dividend Paid Last February.

Feb. 1, 1902, a dividend of 1 per cent was paid on the stock.

The officers of the Northern Securities Co. are: President, James J. Hill, St. Paul; vice-president, John S. Kennedy, New York; second vice-president, George F. Baker, New York; third vice-president, D. Wills James, New York; fourth vice-president, W. P. Clough, St. Paul; secretary and treasurer, E. T. Nichols, New York.

During the formation of the merger Northern Pacific stock brought fabulous prices, at one time going as high as $1000 a share. The desire of the promoters of the merger to get control of the entire stock produced the advance.

Many small holders of Northern Pacific became wealthy through the unprecedented advance.

GOVERNMENT'S POWER UPHELD

The Northern Securities Co. must return Great Northern and Northern Pacific stock to original holders.

It must receive its own stock, with which it paid for the railroad stock.

It cannot vote Great Northern or Northern Pacific stock, or exercise any direction over the affairs of the roads.

The Northern Securities Co. is in violation of the anti-trust act because it has the power to restrain trade.

Its New Jersey charter does not empower it to override national legislation.

The power of Congress over interstate trade is supreme and cannot be hindered by state laws.

It is for Congress, not courts, to decide whether Northern Securities combination is beneficial to the country.

A special to the Post-Dispatch from New York says the case will be appealed to the United State Supreme Court.

STOCK OF NORTHERN SECURITIES BREAKS

NEW YORK, April 9.—In the outside market, Northern Securities, which had sold up to 106¼, broke to 103 on receipt of the news from St. Paul.

State Asks for Jury to Hear Charge of Neglect of Official Duty.

In the Court of Criminal Correction the case of Police Captain Sam J. Boyd, charged with neglect of official duty, was continued until April 27.

The state asked for a jury and asked that the case be sent over.

RETAIL CLERKS ON A STRIKE

Chicago Workers to the Number of 285 Are Called Out From Clothing Store by Unions.

CHICAGO, April 9.—The first strike of retail clerks in Chicago occurred last night when Business Agent Conway of the Federated Clerks' Coucil called out on strike the 285 clerks employed by five of the largest retail clothing stores in the northwest portion of the city, alleging that the proprietors of the stores had violated their agreement with the clerks to keep their stores closed on Wednesday and Friday nights.

BETTER MAIL SERVICE

Hotels and Clubs Between Grand Avenue and King's Highway to Have Three Evening Deliveries.

Postmaster Baumhoff announced Thursday that the West End hotels will be given additional mail service the first of the week.

The new order will give all hotels and clubs, from Grand avenue to King's highwhy, three evening deliveries from 7 up to midnight.

For this purpose there will be a special carrier, who will start at Grand avenue, thence to King's highway and return on Morgan street, stopping at all the hotels and clubs included in the district.

This will give the West End hotels the same mail service as those downtown.

The step was deemed necessary on account of the increasing number of hotels that are going up in the territory covered.

VISITORS WILL BE FLAGGED

Little Banners Will Signify Where They Can Lodge During the Dedication Period.

ROOMS

For World's Fair Visitors.

In appealing blue letters this inscription will appear on flags of white, 11 by 14 inches, flying from the front of each hotel, rooming house, boarding house, hall or dwelling where visitors may be housed during the dedication period.

The flags are now being made under the supervision of the free information bureau. They will be ready for distribution at the Laclede building in a few days.

An office will be established at Union Station, and there cards will be given out to each applicant, with a list of places where he can find room and board for whatever price he is willing to pay.

The pamphlet in process of preparation by the bureau containing a list of all the houses in St. Louis where rooms and board can be obtained will be issued about April 20.

Nearly 10,000 places will receive guests for a consideration during the dedication season, divided as follows: Halls, 68; hotels, 127; rooming houses, 2000; boarding houses, 1600; dwellings, 6185.

It is estimated that 10,000 lodgers can be accommodated in the halls, and 100,000 persons in the entire number of buildings.

HEIRESS' MOTHER VETOES WEDDING

Mrs. Magee Says Daughter Will Not Become Mrs. Harry Brown.

COUPLE ATTEMPTED TO WED, GRANDMOTHER FOILED THEM

Miss Marie Everest, With Elderly Relative, Returns From California, After Interrupted Elopement.

"There will be no marriage between my daughter and Mr. Harry George Brown," said Mrs. H. L. Magee, wife of the general superintendent of the Wabash, to the Post-Dispatch Thursday.

This declaration was made several hours after the return of Mrs. Magee's daughter, Miss Marie Fleming Everest, and the latter's grandmother, Mrs. M. M. Everest, from their trip to California. They reached St. Louis Thursday morning at 6:50 in Mr. Magee's private car, and were driven to the Magee residence at 4715 Page boulevard.

Miss Everest makes her home with her grandmother at 4723 Page boulevard, but for a day or so they will be guests at the Magee home.

Mrs. Magee, in speaking of the reported engagement of her daughter to Harry George Brown of Chicago, admitted that such a person as Brown existed and that her daughter had met him, but declared the report of an elopement from Los Angeles to Santa Barbara was without foundation.

"It never happened," she said. "If my daughter marries at all the man will be another than Mr. Brown."

Mrs. Magee said that Mrs. Everest and Miss Everest had no statement to make concerning the reports sent from California.

According to press dispatches from Los Angeles, Miss Everest met Brown at a social function and the two were drawn to each other from the first.

Mrs. Everest learned of the attachment and the plan to marry just as the couple were in the office of the license clerk.

She thwarted the marriage by informing the license clerk that her granddaughter and ward was a minor. A second attempt was made, but again the grandmother's tactics were successful.

The young woman returned to the apartments in oHtel Rosyn. Four days later it is said, she eluded her grandmother's care, met Brown, and eloped with him to Santa Barbara, where they obtained the coveted license. At last accounts the documen: had not been used.

That the ceremony was not performed in Santa Barbara is said to have been the result of a compromise by which Miss Everest was to return to St. Louis with her guardian, and Brown was to come several days later, when the marriage would follow.

Mrs. Magee's statement that her daughter is not to marry Brown will cause much surprise to the friends of the family, who had looked upon the affair as settled. The inference drawn from her remarks Thursday was that if Brown arrived in St. Louis to seek her daughter's hand he would not be received by her relatives.

The acquaintance between Miss Evrest and Brown was of two weeks' duration before the atteempt to secure the license at Los Angeles was made. Brown is 26 years old.

Miss Everest is an attractive and cultured girl, and heiress to an estate valued at a million dollars. She has already inherited one fortune from her maternal grandfather, Aaron Everest, whose widow adopted the girl and made such heroic efforts to prevent the marriage. Miss Everest will come into another large fortune at the death of her paternal grandmother, Mrs. Fleming of Philadelphia.

Since she has lived in St. Louis, Miss Everest showed no particular inclination for society, caring seemingly more for literature, music and quiet home life.

SHOWERS FOR GOOD FRIDAY

Weather Bureau Hopes to Clear Up Dampness in Time for a Bright Easter.

"Increasing cloudiness Thursday, with probable showers Friday." That's the way Dr. Hyatt is getting ready for Easter. He thinks that if he lets the rain have a show Friday, perhaps that same rain will be good and stay away up in the clouds Sunday.

In the Ohio valley, the Atlantic states, the western Gulf and the North Pacific states they had their rain Wednesday.

In Montana they're even making it stronger than a rain. Up there it's snowing. You can expect almost anything of the state in which President Roosevelt has pitched his tent.

North Carolina has no intention of letting Montana outdo her, however. There were killing frosts in that state Wednesday night. West Texas had some thunderstorms.

The barometer program is "high" in the upper Mississippi, the Gulf region and the northern Pacific states.

It is "down" in the upper lake region, Nevada and Idaho.

EMPEROR WASHED FEET OF 12 MEN

VIENNA, April 9.—Emperor Francis Joseph, assisted by 11 archdukes, in the Hofburg today performed the ancient Holy Thursday ceremony of washing the feet of 12 aged men.

Their ages ranged from 92 to 99, aggregating 1082 years.

The Emperor first placed dishes of food before each man, which the archdukes removed immediately afterwards, the viands being sent later to the men's homes.

The ceremony ended with the Emperor hanging a bag containing 30 pieces of silver around each man's neck.

He appeared to be in excellent health.

There was a large gathering of court, diplomatic and military officials present, including Ambassador Storer and Mrs. Storer, Second Secretary Rives, Military Attache Harris, the British ambassador, Sir F. R. Plunkett, and Lady Plunkett, and the Duchess of Marlborough.

"MISSOURI IS THE MOST EXPENSIVE STATE IN WHICH TO BUY LEGISLATION."

D. J. Kelley

JOHN A. LEE.

DANGER TO TRUST PASSED BEFORE LIEUT. GOV. LEE CHARGED BRIBERY

Delay of Senate's Presiding Officer in Making Public Attempted Corruption Suggests That Kelley, When He Returns, May Shed Further Light on Situation.

Does Lieutenant-Governor John A. Lee possess complete information bearing on the boodle deals which brought about the defeat of legislation designed to repeal the present anti-alum baking powder law?

Has he a knowledge of the methods which accomplished such splendid results for the Baking Powder Trust at the sessions of the forty-first and forty-second general assemblies?

As the presiding officer of the Missouri Senate, his was the most powerful influence that could be used to assist or oppose the efforts of any interest seeking to promote or kill legislation.

Gov. Lee has cleared up part of the alum scandal by showing how money was used to throttle the bill of the independent manufacturers at the recent session.

How much more light will be shed on that infamous transaction?

Circumstances point conclusively to the fact that Gov. Lee is a close acquaintance of the trust; has been on friendly terms with Daniel J. Kelley, the man who he now charges attempted to bribe him with the offer of $1000 to uphold the cream of tartar baking powder interests; is in touch with those senators who are believed to have profited financially by their votes.

One of these senators—Frank H. Farris of Crawford County—threatened to expose Lee if the lieutenant-governor did not bend to his will.

Lee avoided the threat by surrender. Farris was favored to the full extent of the lieutenant-governor's power, receiving the chairmanship of most important Senate committees.

"I will down the lobby," declared Lee, referring to the Farris-Morton senatorial clique.

"If you do there will be something stirring," was the practical defi which met the declaration.

Now Gov. Lee comes before the public and says that the representative of the baking powder trust attempted to control his official influence by offering him the sum of $1000.

Not only once, but on four or five occasions, Gov. Lee asserts, Daniel J. Kelley tried to force boodle upon him.

Three weeks ago Gov. Lee said:

"Any man who puts alum in food is not at home outside of the penitentiary. I voted against the alum bill, and am glad of it. If there has been corruption, it has been on both sides."

How did Gov. Lee reach the conclusion that if the advocates of the trust used boodle, so also did those representing the alum interests?

Yet knowing that there was boodle, Gov. Lee remained quiet until after he cast the deciding vote, when the Senate was a tie on the Farris proposition to label all baking powder cans—which was a move in behalf of the trust.

Gov. Le[illegible]knowledges that Kelley told him sh[illegible] after the election that he (Kelley) intended to spend $15,000 to bury the alum bill.

But not until the clamps of a grandjury investigation fastened suspicion in certain quarters did the lieutenant-governor come forward with his story.

He testified before the Cole County grandjury, April 1, that there was nothing apparently in the information which he conveyed to that body on which an indictment could be based.

Attorney-General Crow persisted in the inquiry, and by April 4 had gathered sufficient evidence to warrant another interview with the lieutenant-governor.

This evidence was communicated by Circuit Attorney Folk to Mr. Crow on information by the Post-Dispatch.

Gov. Lee was expected in Jefferson City, Monday night, to deliver a political speech.

He sent his regrets to the meeting, saying that he was too ill to go.

Lee Admitted Facts Reluctantly.

Instead he responded to a request of Attorney-General Crow to talk over the "alum business."

Mr. Crow put the whole matter plainly and, it is said, Gov. Lee admitted reluctantly the transaction in which D. J. Kelley was alleged to have figured as an attempted bribe giver.

Disclosures followed rapidly, and the peculiar attitude which Lee had assumed all along was partially explained.

Even to the names of senators who are thought to have been bribed by the trust's representatives the lieutenant-governor's admissions went—so it is currently believed.

The check for $1000 was made out in the name of Robert E. Lee and handed to him at the Planters' Hotel by Kelley, with instructions to "give this to your brother John; he will know what it is for."

Gov. Lee says he was not aware of this transaction until March 25, when the check was delivered to his brother, "Bob."

The check was dated March 20. On March 19 the alum bill was indefinitely postponed, the vote being 19 to 14.

Why did Gov. Lee wait from March 25 to April 6, a period of two weeks, to reveal this information?

The Cole County grandjury was in session continuously during that time, but, so far as known, Gov. Lee did not endeavor to bring his story of the alleged attempt to bribe to light.

What was the cause of his delay, and why did he hold back until the situation virtually presented a damaging aspect for himself?

And why, again, being fully aware that the baking powder trust was corrupting the legislators, did he talk of "pure food" legislation, and, whenever it was in his power to do so, help along the baking powder monopoly?

How was it that Senator Martin of Saline—Lee's bosom friend and senatorial adviser—flopped to the baking powder trust after creating a storm at the 1901 session by insisting that the criminal jurisprudence committee report out the measure to repeal the trust staute?

Martin adopted the same tactics as Lee. Which advised the other?

The lieutenant-governor sent letters to various physicians in the state, asking their opinion of the alum as a poisonous ingredient. He got answers favorable to his side.

Before the [illegible]te was taken on the alum bill Marti[illegible] the same thing, and both publish[illegible] letters they had received.

"Missouri is the most expensive state in which to buy legislation," was the jocular remark made by Daniel J. Kelley two years ago, but accepted by the St. Louis man to whom it was addressed as authoritative and coming from one who knew of what he was talking.

Kelley and the St. Louis man had close business relationships. The St. Louis man was in the advertising business, and Kelley was posing as the publisher and editor of The American Queen, as well as having much to do with the advertising for the Baking Powder Trust.

At the time they were talking, and when the remark was made, the now famous bill prohibiting the use of alum in foodstuffs had just been passed, to the great satisfaction of the Baking Powder Trust.

The St. Louis man knew that Kelley was connected with the Baking Powder Trust. Kelley proudly claimed that he was not only the legislative agent, but that he was a director in the Baking Powder Trust.

He made no effort to conceal his connection with legislation in other states, and even boasted of his accomplishments in a way that led his confidant to believe that he thought himself the most experienced legislative agent in the country.

A topic of interest to both men at that time was securing advertising from the World's Fair. That subject was brought up between them, and Kelley suggested that if anyone could secure advertising from the World's Fair Company, it was probably Lieutenant-Governor John A. Lee.

CALLED GOV. LEE "JOHN."

The advertising man was invited to breakfast with Lee and Kelley at the Planters' Hotel, and accepted.

When he saw the men greet each other he was surprised at their familiarity. Lieutenant-Governor Lee was "John" to the legislative agent and Kelley was "Dan" to the lieutenant-governor. They spoke familiarly of topics that only come up between intimates, and to all appearances were friends of long standing, who knew each other's business thoroughly.

The advertising man ex[illegible] to go before a grand[jury] [illegible] the facts as he heard and [illegible] them.

GRANDJURY WILL INVESTIGATE ALUM

The April grandjury was impaneled Thursday. The body takes up as a [illegible] of first importance the charges of [illegible] growing out of state alum baking [illegible]. George A. Newcomb, a [illegible] living at 5739 Clemens avenue, is the foreman of the new body. The other members are as follows: Charles A. Gartside, coal dealer, 4534A Laclede avenue; Charles C. Crone, real estate, 3732 Blair avenue; John H. Cavender, real estate, 5515 Cabanne; George A. Baker, Jr., president Stephens Lithographing and Engraving Co., 5828 Cabanne avenue; Frank Wyman, retired, 5545 Cabanne avenue; Robert Leichert, jewelry, 2907 South Jefferson avenue; John A. Gardiner, manager American Oak Leather Co., 1035 Goodfellow avenue; Fred W. Hoffman, produce, 3233 Hawthorne avenue; George H. Plant, miller, 3743 Washington avenue; William H. Foster, manager loan department of the Lincolin Trust Co., 4234 Page avenue; Philip Roeder, bookseller, 1709 Carr street.

Direct charges of bribery have been made against Daniel J. Kelley of New York, who posing as the agent of the National Health Society and as editor of The American Queen, its official organ, is in reality the legislative agent of the Baking Powder Trust.

The law prohibiting the manufacture, but not the sale, of alum baking podwer was enacted two years ago, when Kelley and United States Senator W. J. Stone appeared in Jefferson City as the champions of the society, which has no excuse for its existence, except to promote the interest of the Baking Powder Trust.

Its repeal was threatened at the last session of the Assembly at the request of the manufactures of alum baking powders, who pointed out that they could maintain their sales in Missouri, but were only inconvenienced and mulcted by being compelled to maintain their factories outside the state.

The lower branch of the Assembly was overwhelmingly in favor of the repeal of the law.

The Baking Powder Trust, which manufacturers the anti-alum baking powder, wanted the law to remain as the best protection they could get at present.

Work Confined to the Senate.

The story now accepted is that, finding the House would be too expensive to control, Kelley of "The National Health Society," in the interest of "The American Queen," devoted his attention entirely to the Senate in his efforts to defeat the repeal.

Working on this line subpenas have been issued for Senators Schoenlaub, Collins, Bartorius, Nelson and Smith of St. Louis, who will be the first witnesses called.

Other witnesses are Senators Farris, Martin and ex-Senator Orchard.

The direct evidence on which the arrest of Kelley was ordered in New York was secured from Lieutenant-Governor Lee, and his brother, R. E. Lee, who gave to Attorney-General Crow and Circuit Attorney Folk a check for $1000, which he had received from Kelley, but which, he says, was not cashed.

The senators who opposed the repeal of the law were led by Senator Farris, who has been in St. Louis for two days, but left for his hme in Steeleville Wednesday night, after condemning Lieutenant-Governor Lee for giving up the check.

Lieutenant-Governor Lee had the deciding vote on the repeal bill, as the Senate stood at a tie vote. He defeated the bill at one vote and on the second tie was absent.

Lee's services have been valuable to the Baking Powder Trust largely through his position as editor of The Interstate Grocer, and he has been known as an opponent of the repeal of the law.

The charges were localized through the charge that the distribution of the money paid senators [illegible] by the Baking Powder [illegible] distributed here.

Ha[illegible]art has been called as a witness. She is known as an acquaintance of several senators, and with other women is said to have particular knowledge of the funds distributed.

Whitney Layton, a manufacturer of alum baking powder, who was inconvenienced by having to move his factory from the state and ship his goods back here, is also a witness.

It is supposed that George W. Hobbs is wanted to testify in regard to the changing of a $1000 bill for a state senator at the Colonial Trust Co., a transaction which occurred shortly after the Forty-second General Assembly adjourned.

EDITOR PAGE JUST KEPT THE CHANGE

A new story about the $1000 bill that I. L. Page, the Bonne Terre editor, had changed in Jefferson City was told at the Laclede Thursday morning.

According to this story the bill was in the possession of a member of the assembly before it passed into Page's hands.

"The member who got the bill gave it to Page to have changed," the country politician who was telling the story said.

"The member didn't care to get into the limelight with the greenback. Page was a friend of his and he asked him to take it to the bank.

"Page was willing to accommodate the member. He had it changed, as directed, and the member told him to keep it a few days. Page did as directed.

"Then the member came to Page and told him he was ready to receive the change.

"Page knocked the member clean off his feet by telling him he had concluded to keep the change himself.

"The member frothed and swore, but Page held on to the money.

"Of course, the member didn't sue him to recover the thousand. When the fact that Page had changed the bill was discovered, the member was not only glad Page had it, instead of him, but he wished he never had had it to give to Page.

"Naturally Page, having taken the member's thousand dollars, was not anxious to add to his distress by making his story public. If this story is true, it is easy to understand why Page does not wish to tell the history of the bill, and why he has worried himself sick over the present investigation."

Walter Hensley of Farmington, Page's lawyer, was present when the story was told.

"It's a good story, if true," he said, "but I never heard it before."

Senator H. Clay Heather of Marion also heard the story and declared it a good one.

"I don't know anything about it, though," he declared. "There's no alum dust on me."

EDITOR PAGE NOT READY TO TALK

From a Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

BONNE TERRE, Mo., April 9.—Editor Irwin L. Page lies abed at his home here, attended by a doctor and a deputy sheriff.

Dr. [illegible]. Son, an eclectic, is looking after Mr. Page's bodily ills. Deputy Sheriff Crump of Cole County holds in his possession an instrument which directs him to take Mr. Page to Jefferson City as a witness before the grandjury.

Dr. Son says Mr. Page is a sick man. Mr. Page sides with Dr. Son; he looks sick, too; he is pale and thin.

"In my newspaper work at Jefferson City," he said to thePost-Dispatch, "I necessarily kept irregular hours. I was not accustomed to being up until early morning and then eating irregularly, and it knocked me out. I began to feel it toward the close of the session. I have been in bed eight days, and I feel sure that if I should get up now and go to Jefferson City I would suffer a relapse."

When the Post-Dispatch correspondent asked Deputy Crump if Mr. Page was [illegible], the deputy replied:

"[illegible] is in bed. You can ask him."

Deputy Crump refused to say whether [illegible] is under arrest.

"Mr. Page," he said, "he can tell [illegible] like a man under arrest!"

asked Mr. Page. "That story in the state papers that I am under guard is all nonsense. Sheriff Smith of Cole County was here with the grandjury attachment and has returned to Jefferson City. Mr. Crump came down Wednesday morning, and is stopping over at the hotel. If I wanted to get away, and was able to walk, it would be an easy matter for me to get across the state line into Illinois. It's only 40 miles from here. That grandjury attachment couldn't touch me outside this state, but I have no desire to leave Missouri."

Mr. Page stated that at 11 o'clock the night he reached home, a week ago Tuesday, a telegram from Jefferson City summoning him to return and testify again before the grandjury was received. He was already sick in bed, he said, and had [illegible]ay to that effect sent. Then came [illegible]other telegram, and Dr. Son made out a certificate of illness. Then came Sheriff Smith.

Attorney Walter Hensley of Farmington, counsel for Page, came to Bonne Terre and drew up a bond of $1000 for his client, to insure his appearance before the grandjury whenever his physician consented to let him travel.

The lawyer circulated the bond among the merchants and other business men of Bonne Terre and got about 20 signers.

Page signed the bond and it was taken to Jefferson City, but the officials there declined to accept it without Page's personal appearance to qualify.

That Deputy Sheriff Crump had instructions to take the witness to the state capital today is evident from the fact that while the Post-Dispatch correspondent was at the bedside, Mr. Crump knocked on the door and was admitted, and the patient told the officer that it would be impossible for him to go. "I'm still too weak," he said, "and I couldn't stand it."

In reply to a question after the officer departed he said he hoped to be able to go to Jefferson City some time next week.

"Will you then be ready to testify as to the $1000 bill?" he was asked.

"No, indeed," was the reply; "not that early. When the time is ripe I will talk. I may wait until other people get through."

He was told of the arrest of Daniel J. Kelley, the baking powder trust representative, in New York, and in reply to a question as to what effect a possible clearing up of the John A. Lee $1000 check transaction might have upon his testimony, he laughed. The laughter seemed to cause a stitch in his side. He pressed his hand to his side and caught his breath in evident pain.

"I don't know Mr. Kelley," he said, "but whatever he might testify to wouldn't hit within a mile of me."

The only feature of the recent notoriety into which Page has sprung that he will discuss at all is the new suit of clothes which he wore to the meeting of the Democratic State Press Association at Kansas City.

"The papers took pains," he says, "to connect that $1000 bill with my new clothes. The fact is that for a year past I have been wearing a tailor-made suit, costing nearly three times as much as my new spring suit. When I came back from Jefferson City the first time after adjournment of the legislature, I went into a store here to get a new hat, having torn the rim of my old one. The clerk began recommending a new spring suit, and I bought one for $12.50. I happened to wear it to Kansas City, and the reporters thought it looked like prosperity. For some years I have owned my home here, a good newspaper plant and business, and two or three pieces of real estate, and I could well afford a $12.50 suit."

Irwin L. Page came to Bonne Terre five years ago from a town in Nebraska. He is 29 years of age.

GOULD PREDICTS FAIR'S SUCCESS

Railroad Magnate Greatly Pleased With View of Exposition Site.

MISSOURI PACIFIC WILL MAKE ELABORATE EXHIBIT

In Trip Through East and West General Interest in St. Louis and Exposition Was Discovered.

"This sight assures me of the unparalleled supremacy of the St. Louis Exposition," said George J. Gould as he stood on the summit of Art Hill and looked out on the busy plain where workmen were swarming around the buildings that are going up so fast that one does not have to watch long to see their progress.

Mr. Gould and his two sons, Kingdon and Jay, and officers of the Missouri Pacific Railroad terminated their visit to St. Louis and the World's Fair site Thursday morning.

The activity at the grounds, the rolling site and the panorama that was spread before the visitors as they stood on the hills pleased Mr. Gould greatly.

"The topography is especially in its favor," he said in speaking of the site's natural advantages.

Mr. Gould also said that the Missouri Pacific Railroad would be creditably represented with an exhibit and that plans were already in the hands of Vice-President Russell Harding.

"In the east citizens are realizing that there is something doing in the gateway of the west. My trip over the west leads me to believe that that part of the country is enthusiastic over the exposition prospects," said Mr. Gould.

Mr. Gould and his sons are returning from a 4000-mile trip over the Gould railroad lines. The two boys have been a surprise to the railroad men who have accompanied the party. They know the railroad business and show a remarkable interest in it

PHARMACY CLASS GRADUATED.

Misses Burkart and Boefer, St. Louis Women, Win Honors.

Three young women were among the 72 graduates from the St. Louis College of Pharmacy Wednesday evening. Miss Carolyn A. Burkart, Mabelle Fayne Lyon and Adelaide C. Boefer were given diplomas, and two of them, Misses Burkart and Boefer, both of St. Louis, were awarded gold medals for proficiency.

It is customary to give one gold medal and one silver medal each year, but the rival young women were so equally entitled to a gold medal that it was felt it would be unfair to discriminate. Lawrence D. Fern of Tunnel Hill, Ill., was awarded the alumni gold medal for the highest average. The college silver medal was given to Henry F. Rheinlander of Dallas, Tex.

STACKER LEE IS AFLOAT.

Big Steamer Freed From Sandbar at Kimmswick, Mo.

The Stacker Lee of the Lee Line of steamers, which was grounded on a sandbar at Kimmswick, Mo., as exclusively told in the Post-Dispatch Wednesday, has resumed her trip to Memphis.

The big steamer was aground on the Illinois side, and it took two hours' hard work to release her. A portion of the cargo was shifted in order to bring about the release. The landing at that point, which was to have been made, was omitted.

As the regular pilots of the boat are out on a strike for higher wages, Capt. Lightner, the master, presided at the wheel on the down trip.

Oster Falls Under Wagon in Trying to Avoid Vehicles.

[illegible] Oster, 5 years old, was run over [illegible]illed by a sand wagon in front of his [illegible]e, 2617 Franklin avenue, Wednesday [illegible]rnoon.

There was a jam of vehicles in the street and in trying to avoid one wagon he ran under the feet of horses drawing the sand wagon. He was hurt internally and died at the City Hospital about two hours later. His father is employed as a painter at the World's Fair grounds and came here about two years ago from Kansas City.

Fell in Boiling Water.

Two-year-old Joseph Jackonics of 1247 South Third street, fell into a tub of boiling water Wednesday evening and is not expected to recover. The [illegible]er rescued child and called Dr. [illegible] who pronounced the burns as pr[illegible]tal.

FOR CATARRHAL INDIGESTION

Pe-ru-na is a Specific

Congressman Thompson Says; "I Highly Recommend Its General Use."

Hon. Chas. W. Thompson.

Men of prominence all over the United States are commending Peruna.

Over fifty members of our National Congress have either used Peruna themselves or noted its benefit to the extent that they do not hesitate to give it public indorsement.

No other remedy in the world ever received such honorable and unqualified endorsement.

Governors, Mayors, Generals, Admirals, Consuls and scores of other government officials speak in high praise of it.

Thousands of people in the humbler walks of life rely upon it as a family medicine. Send for a free book of testimonials.

Mr. Chas W. Thompson, Member of Congress, Fifth Alabama District, writes from Washington, D. C.:

"My cashier has used your Peruna for indigestion with the most unexampled and beneficial results, and I cannot too highly or earnestly recommend its general use."—Chas. W. Thompson.

Indigestion is most always followed by catarrh of the stomach.

There is no use of taking remedies to palliate indigestion.

There is no use calling it dyspepsia, and then taking pepsin and other remedies to produce artificial digestion.

The only rational procedure is to cure the catarrh of the stomach. The catarrh once cured indigestion disappears, and there is no more dyspepsia. Taking artificial digestants is simply temporizing with the difficulty. In this way valuable time is lost while the catarrh is fastening itself stronger and stronger upon the mucous membrane of the stomach.

A very short course of treatment with Peruna is sufficient to cure these cases. Peruna is recommended by the highest authorities and the most conspicuous people in the land.

Congressman Botkin Cured of Catarrh by Peruna After Twenty-five Years Suffering.

In a recent letter to Dr. Hartman, Congressman Botkin of Kansas, whose fame is a national one, says of Peruna:

Hon. J. D. Botkin.

My Dear Doctor:—"It gives me pleasure to certify to the excellent curative qualities of your medicines, Peruna and Manalin. I have been afflicted more or less for a quarter of a century with catarrh of the stomach and constipation. A residence in Washington has increased these troubles. A few bottles of your medicine has given me almost complete relief, and I am sure that a continuation of them will effect a permanent cure. Peruna is surely a wonderful remedy for catarrhal affections."—J. D. Botkin.

Margaret J. Moore, 252 Garside street, Newark, N. J., writes: "I had dyspepsia so badly that I could not take a drink of water without suffering severe pain, or could not eat anything without bringing on dyspepsia. I took one bottle of your Peruna three months ago and can eat anything without suffering at all. I am as well as I ever was."

Mr. Edward E. Conn, 315 Woodward street, Jersey City, N. J., writes:

"I have had stomach trouble for three years up to one and one-half years ago when I first started with Peruna. After taking one bottle I found relief, so I kept on with Peruna for I was glad that I had found a remedy that would cure me. Every bottle I took made me feel better. When I began taking Peruna I only weighed 110 pounds, and now I weigh 160 pounds. I owe my health to Peruna, and highly recommend it to those who are suffering from catarrh."

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

Clothing the Boys

By the opening of our greater Juvenile Department, The Model gave to the selling of Boys' Apparel the dignity and importance which it deserves. We realized months ago that St. Louis did not possess a modern Boys' store, and we started the work then that has resulted in the magnificent salesroom on our second floor, and the installation of a stock of Boys' Clothing not surpassed anywhere in size, in completeness or values given. Here's a complete store, all for Boys—a daylight store, handsomely decorated, with special tables at the windows for showing goods, and chairs and settees for the comfort of ladies when shopping. Our wonderful business proves conclusively that there was a place for just such a store as this in this great metropolis, and that our big Easter stock of Boys' Clothing is unusually attractive.

Boys' Suits.

A very little price, but an unusually big value—Knee Pants Suits that will stand lots of service and still look well. Sailor Suits in blue Serge, 3 to 8. Norfolk Suits, 5 to 12, and double-breasted Suits, 8 to 16—a full line of fancy mixtures and blue cheviots—on sale tomorrow at..... $2.25

Furnishings.

Our Furnishings Department for Boys is just as complete as the one for men. Notice it when you come upstairs. See how well we've provided for the boys, and how convenient it is to shop there. Everything in sight, or just at hand—boys' shirts, waists, blouses, underwear, neckwear, hosiery, sweaters, suspenders and handkerchiefs.

We sell clothing strictly on its merits. We give no discounts—do no "charging"—goods are marked in plain figures—and there's no deviation nor discrimination.

VANDERBILT HAS NARROW ESCAPE

Alfred Gwynne Falls From Pony, Foot Being Caught.

NEW YORK, April 9.—Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt had a narrow escape from serious injury at the Durland Academy horse show last evening when he was unseated from his polo pony in the ring and for several seconds hung suspended with his foot caught in the stirrup, while a groom got his pony under control. Only the quickness of the groom saved him.

The accident occurred in the speed contest. For this the contestants were paired off. The riders were to start at one end of the ring, jump their horses forward and bring them to a stop at the opposite side.

Vanderbilt's pony left his opponent several yards in the first three jumps. Vanderbilt forced his pony all the way. Then at the end he pulled the animal back on its haunches, with its nose not two feet from the ring wall. The rider was hurled forward by the sudden stop and nearly pitched over the animal's head against the wall. He saved himself, landing well out of the saddle and on the animal's neck. Then he fell. His foot caught in the stirrup, the spectators sprang to their feet in fright and the horse began to plunge. The groom was at the animal's head just as it seemed that the young man could not escape being dragged and trampled.

Mr. Vanderbilt rode the race over and was awarded the blue ribbon.

WANTED "DOG DAYS" TO COME

Motion Pictures of "High Divers" Aroused Summer Desires at Newsboy's Entertainment.

The members of the Post-Dispatch Newsboys' Club, over seven hundred in number, assembled in the Newsboys' Room, in the Post-Dispatch building last night, to witness the motion picture entertainment arranged for them.

The seating and standing capacity of the room was taxed when A. D. Aldrich of the John Deere Plow Co. started his "livin' pitcher" machine.

"Niagara Falls from the Canadian Side" was the first scene shown. Many of the little fellows had never seen a moving picture and everyone was trying to tell the other how it was done, but no explanation could satisfy them.

Admiral Dewey and his flagship, Olympia, next appeared and was given a rousing reception. A real sea fight, one that many of the boys present had yelled "Extra!" about now commenced. The American battleships attacked the Spanish fleet in Santiago harbor. This stirred the patriotic spirit of the boys and it was sometime before quiet could be restored.

Next came a series of comics that produced great laughter, and the eruption of Mt. Pelee in colors, showing the terrible destruction it wrought upon the inhabitants of that ill-fated place. High diving was the next and the boys, according to their remarks, wished that the "dog days" were here so they could give an example of their ability in the same line.

The famous Georgetown Loop, loading cattle in the Philippines; cavalry fording river on horses; panorama view of Kings county, New York; Twentieth Century tramp, and other pictures were presented.

All together 66 pictures were shown and were all appreciated.

Tilden's Papers for Library.

NEW YORK, April 9.—Among the gifts announced at the last meeting of the trustees of the New York Public Library is that of a collection of books, pamphlets, papers and documents that belonged to the late Samuel J. Tilden, which were presented to the library by the executors and trustees of the estate. The collection fills some 30 cases and contains many public documents and papers relating to public and professional affairs with which Mr. Tilden was connected.

Our Juvenile Department is resplendent with crisp new ideas in Spring and Summer Clothes.

We feel that our interests are mutual—that we need your appreciation and that your own interests require that you do not neglect the opportunities here offered of obtaining the newest ideas in artistic clothes for boys.

Without additional cost, we claim, that we give better qualities and superior workmanship; and are safeguarding our future by instilling merited confidence in our boys' clothes which will not be effaced from the minds of our little clients when they reach maturity.

NINE DEAD FROM ARKANSAS TORNADO

Storm Swept Two Counties Carrying Death and Injury to Many Towns.

LATER REPORTS MAY TELL OF HEAVIER LOSS OF LIFE

Worst Destruction Is at Little Red, Where Several Families Are Wiped Out by Smashing of Buildings.

SEARCY, Ark., April 9.—Several towns near here in White and Cleburne counties were struck by a tornado, which swept through them at night, leaving death and destruction in its path.

Most of the country through which the storm ploughed is away from railroads, telegraph and telephone lines. Men who went over a portion of the track of the storm found trees were twisted from their trunks and houses demolished. It has not been ascertained where the storm began, but it is known that it swept through these two counties.

The casualties will probably mount high when full reports are received.

Nine are dead, certainly, three dying and 13 others badly injured. The towns of Little Red, Albion, Bradford, Heber and Pangburn have been heard from thus far. The dead:

JIM LEGGETT, Little Red.
JOE LEGGETT, Little Red.
TOM KING and wife, Little Red.
Three King children.
Woman school teacher, who was boarding at King's.
A. C. WILLIAMS, near Heber.

The injured are: Infant child of the King family; Mrs. A. C. Williams, not expected to live; Buck Neely, Searcy; Albert Kiler, Elbert Boyle, Little Red; Walker Pollard, two of the Pollard family, near Albion; Mrs. Hoverton and two children; Pangburn, not expetced to live; Mrs. Barkhousen, Little Red, leg broken and skull fractured; Walter Fuller, Pangburn, leg broken; Mrs. Henry Wells, injured internally, fatally; unknown woman, Pangburn, both legs broken; Tom Houston, near Heber, both arms broken; unknown man at Bradford.

Bradford, which is on the Iron Mountain Railroad, was the first point heard from. Several houses were blown down there and one man was badly injured.

The tornado came from the west and spent its force by the time it reached Bradford. It is feared the little town of Hiram, with a population of 150, has been wiped off the map. It is near Heber and in the storm's track. Nothing has been heard from it. It probably will be several days before the names of all who were killed by the tornado are known.

TO FIGHT EUROPEAN TARIFF

Newspaper Will Be Published in Paris in Interests of American Commerce.

CHICAGO, April 9.—American newspaper men, in conjunction with French and American economists, have devised a novel scheme to fight the threatened European tariff coalition against the commerce of the United States. The scheme contemplates the publication in Paris of a commercial newspaper, devoted to cultivating better relations between the European nations and the United States.

The plan was agreed on yesterday at a meeting in the Grand Pacific Hotel. Chas. A. Hundt of Chicago and E. de Valcourt of the Credit-Lyonaisse are leaders in the movement. The name of the paper will be Le Commerce d'Amerique Avec Les Pays d'Europe.

The consuls of France, Italy, Russia, Belgium, Switzerland and other European countries, it is said, have assured the support of their respective governments to the promoters. Secretary of the Treasury Leslie M. Shaw, Senators Beveridge and Aldrich, Secretary of Commerce George D. Cortelyou and Chief of the Bureau of Foreign Commerce Frederic Emory have written encouragingly of the movement. Among the business men supporting the plan are Volney W. Foster, James H. Hyde, James Deering, Alexander H. Revell, Charles R. Crane, Wm. F. Warren and several eastern manufacturers.

FEAST OF THE HOMEOPATHS.

Alumni Association Banquet and Annual Election of Officers.

The graduating exercises of the Homeopathic Medical College of Missouri will be held at the Pickwick theater Thursday night.

The banquet of the alumni association was held at the West End Hotel Wednesday night and over 120 members were present. Dr. A. L. Boyle, the retiring president of the association, was toastmaster and those responding were Drs. C. J. Luytles, Josephine McNeil, George H. Gibson, J. H. McCaughan, W. B. Young and A. H. Schott. Other speakers were Dr. Richardson of St. Augustine, Fla., and Dr. W. E. Riley of Fulton, Mo.

The officers elected were: President, Dr. W. B. Gilbert; vice-presidents, W. E. Riley and W. J. Gundlach; secretary, W. J. McCaughan; treasurer, F. W. Lester. The members of the senior class were elected as members. They are: Miss Nevada Wilson, Miss Josephine McNeil, C. Pearce, E. H. Baird, J. P. Baird, Warwin Schott, G. E. Lowe, L. E. Bracken and H. M. Lussack.

WEDDING SURPRISES FRIENDS.

Montell-Christy Nuptials Were Not Announced in St. Louis.

The marriage of Mrs. Ellen Christy-Spencer of St. Louis to Mr. Joseph Edmunds Montell of Greenwich, N. Y., was celebrated at the winter home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Morgan Christy, at Daytonia, Fla., Wednesday.

Mrs. Montell has been very prominent in St. Louis society and the fact that she was to be married did not become known until this week. Only a very few intimate friends were present.

FUNERAL OF MRS. SCHUETZE.

St. Louis Woman Contracted Fatal Ailment in New Orleans.

The funeral of Mrs. Julia Schuetze will be held from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Victor Ehling, at 2223 Whittemore place, at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Schuet was the widow of W. H. Schuetze, a druggist of St. Louis, and she has been visiting her son, John Schuetze, in New Orleans since Jan. 1 and contracted her fatal illness in that city and died there. She was the mother of the late Lieutenant Commander W. H. Schuetze of the United States navy.

[B]EQUEST TO ANOTHER'S WIFE.

[E]mil Wolff Cut Brother and Sister Off With $1 Each.

Mrs. Lucie Fanger, wife of Joseph Fanger, is the beneficiary named in the will of Emil Wolf, filed for probate Wednesday, which leaves $1 each to his sister, Wilhelmina Wolf and his half-brother, Edward Wolf.

The will stated that the testator's relatives have shown themselves indifferent and tendered him no aid or sympathy during his illness. The wife of his friend, Joseph Fanger, is to have all his property [illegible] and T. E. Edwards [illegible]

Presbytery Names Delegates.

Rev. Samuel L. Watson of Howell post-office and Dr. McPheeters of St. Louis were chosen commissioners to the general assembly by the clergymen assembled at the spring meeting of the St. Louis presbytery, held at Clayton. J. Addison Smith and L. C. Moore are alternates. Rev. J. Layton Mauze delivered the opening address, and the closing sermon was by Rev. J. T. Boyer. The session ended with a business meeting Thursday morning.

County Valuations Higher.

The state board of equalization has made an increase of 10 per cent on all real estate valuations in St. Louis County, except town and city lots. An increase of 20 per cent was made on all meat cattle. The county board of equalization is in session, and has increased the valuations an considerable property because of proximity of the World's Fair.

WINE OF CARDUI

Wine of Cardui regulates menstruation, cures bearing-down pains, nervousness, irritation of the membranous linings and all manner of female weakness. This pure Wine takes the young girl safely through the perils of young womanhood by giving her correct menstrual habits. It corrects barrenness, and is the stay of the young mother during pregnancy and at childbirth, assisting her to recover quickly from the ordeal.

Wine of Cardui relieves women of aches and pains in the head, back and abdomen, and is necessary at the menstrual periods, especially when there are symptoms of irregularity or suppression. At the change of life Wine of Cardui gives a woman strength to resist the shock which generally attends the passage of this important period. Wine of Cardui will keep any woman healthy by shielding her from the dangers which lie in wait for her sex.

THE GREAT FAMILY MEDICINES

Thedford's Black-Draught is the original liver regulator. Its results are as far-reaching and important as the influence of the liver on the human body. Thedford's Black-Draught invigorates digestion, curing dyspepsia. It regulates the bowels, curing constipation, diarrhœa and dysentery. By regulating the liver it cures biliousness and colds, and by strengthening the action of the kidneys it relieves the blood of poisons which cause rheumatism and countless pains.

Thedford's Black-Draught is the companion remedy of Wine of Cardui. These two preparations work together perfectly, and are generally sold together. During the past seventy-five years they have cured millions of persons in the privacy of the home, without doctors' offensive private examinations or expensive treatment.

Wine of Cardui and Thedford's Black-Draught always do the same thing, and health is invariably the result. Your druggist has $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui and 25-cent packages of Thedford's Black-Draught.

THEDFORD'S BLACK-DRAUGHT

Brandon, Ala., March 9, 1902.

I have been using Wine of Cardui and Thedford's Black-Draught as you advised me to, and my pains have left me. I sleep well. My appetite is good. I am not constipated and my stomach is not sore. The pains in my side and stomach are gone. The numbness is all gone and I feel better in every way. Mrs. J. A. McCURDY.

Drunkenness

IS A DISEASE!

"Will-Power" Will Not Cure It.

Drink is the greatest curse of mankind. Many a young man of greatest promise has found the dishonored grave of a drunkard instead of an honorable place in society.

Physicians have long recognized that continued indulgence in alcoholic stimulants causes the stomach and digestive organs to become diseased. In the vast majority of cases, therefore, habitual drunkenness is a physical disease, and no amount of mental resolve or "faith cure" will cure it.

"ORRINE" WILL POSITIVELY AND PERMANENTLY CURE THE DRINK HABIT. We guarantee this and will refund the money should the remedy fail. But it never does fail! "ORRINE" is tasteless, odorless and colorless, and can be given without the patient's knowledge in tea, coffee, water or milk. It tones up the diseased stomach and gives a hearty appetite and good digestion.

Members of the W. C. T. U., clergymen, physicians and public men all over the land endorse this wonderful remedy.

Rev. Thos. C. Easton, D.D., 627 E. Capitol St., Washington, D. C., writes: "I can safely affirm, from cases under my personal observation, that ORRINE is a marvelous and permanent remedy for chronic inebriates."

$1 per box, 6 boxes for $5. Securely sealed; postpaid. Sealed booklet mailed free on request. Address ORRINE CO., Pope Building, Washington, D. C., or call on Young women may avoid much sickness and pain, says Miss Alma Pratt, if they will only have faith in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"I feel it my duty to tell all young women how much Lydia E. Pinkham's wonderful Vegetable Compound has done for me. I was completely run down, unable to attend school, and did not care for any kind of society, but now I feel like a new person, and have gained seven pounds of flesh in three months.

"I recommend it to all young women who suffer from female weakness."—Miss Alma Pratt, Holly, Mich.—$5000 forfeit if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

FREE MEDICAL ADVICE TO YOUNG WOMEN.

All young girls at this period of life are earnestly invited to write to Mrs. Pinkham for advice; she has guided in a motherly way hundreds of young women; her advice is freely and cheerfully given; her address is Lynn, Mass.

Judging from the letters she is receiving from so many young girls Mrs. Pinkham is inclined to the belief that our girls are pushed altogether too near the limit of their endurance nowadays in our public schools and seminaries; less learning and more health needed.

A SKIN OF BEAUTY IS A JOY FOREVER.

DR. T. FELIX GOURAND'S ORIENTAL CREAM, OR MAGICAL BEAUTIFIER.

TO CURE DANDRUFF.

It is Necessary That the Dandruff Germ Be Eradicated.

"Destroy the cause, you remove the effect." Kill the germ that causes dandruff, falling hair and baldness, you will have no more dandruff and your hair must grow luxuriantly. Herpicide not only contains the dandruff germ destroyer, but it is also a most delightful hair dressing for regular toilet use. No other hair preparation is on this scientific basis of destroying the dandruff germ, and none other claims to be, for the simple reason that it is only recently that a destroyer of the germ has been discovered—Newbro's Herpicide, the only hair preparation that actually kills dandruff. P. O. OFFICIALS BOOMED A MINE?

Officers of the National Copper Mining Co. All in Department.

SCANDAL TAKES NEW TURN, PAYNE STILL OUT OF CITY

His Confidential Secretary Brought Here From Wisconsin by Him Is Prominent in the Prospectus.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—There was today a temporary transfer of interest from the various scandals in the postoffice department being investigated by Fourth Assistant Postmaster-General Bristow to the promotion of investment properties by certain high officials of the department.

It is said stock in various corporations has been sold by superiors to subordinates in this and other branches of the government. The corporation attracting most attention is the National Copper Mining Co., operating under the laws of Virginia, and having offices here. There officers of the company are: President, A. W. Machen, superintendent of free delivery; vice-president, H. H. Rand, confidential clerk to Postmaster-General Payne; treasurer, Henry M. Baker, former representative in Congress from New Hampshire; secretary, J. D. King, chairman of the civil service board to examine applicants for positions in the rural free delivery service of the postoffice department.

The capital stock of the National Copper Mining Co. is $150,000. It is said literature, setting forth the merits of the concern, has been circulated through the department, and that many clerks invested. The property is located in Mexico.

Mr. Machen said the mining property, in which he was interested, was all that is claimed for it. He denied that stock has been offered for sale to subordinates in the postoffice or any other department. He declared his title did not appear on any of the company's printing.

A four-page leaflet has been scattered through the postoffice department describing the advantages of making investments through the Western Trust and Guaranty Co.

It cites the fact that the treasurer is H. H. Rand, postoffice department, Washington, D. C.

This is an instance in which there is serious objection to the use of Mr. Rand's name in connection with the "postoffice department, Washington, D. C."

The Western Trust and Guaranty Co. submits propositions for investment and receives a commission of 10 per cent of the capital stock of each company promoted. It is expressly stipulated that none of the propositions are offered by the company.

H. H. Rand was brought here from Wisconsin, after Mr. Payne became postmaster-general, and made his confidential secretary.

In addition to the National Copper Mining Co., some of the postoffice officials own stock in the Hidalgo Mining Co., also a Mexican concern.

All the complaints against Mr. Rand have been investigated by inspectors, and this feature of the report is ready for Mr. Payne's examination when he returns.

Among the charges preferred against Mr. Rand is one that he was interested in the Parrish ice claim, which passed Congress at the last session, and did some lobbying for it. A man named Parrish was under contract to supply the Federal army with ice during the civil war. He shipped a lot of ice down the Ohio or Mississippi river. The portion of the army for which it was intended had removed before the ice arrived. Ice melted. The government subsequently refused to pay for it. A claim was pressed in Congress, and has been pending for many years.

The amount is about $300,000.

It has often been alleged that Mr. Machen used his influence derived through his position as superintendent of free delivery to assist in securing the passage of the Parrish ice claim, and that some of his subordinates lobbied for it.

J. D. King, who is associated with A. W. Machen in the National Copper Mining Co., was an applicant for the place made vacant by the resignation of George W. Beavers.

Before he left the city Frederick L. Bingham was given a hearing by the postoffice inspectors, who will investigate the charges that collusion and favoritism existed in the postoffice supplies department which prevented any honest firm outside the District of Columbia from securing a contract.

General notice is to be given to all firms that have heretofore competed for any character of postal supplies to file complaints of favoritism of unjust discrimination and produce their evidence.

It is now thought Mr. Payne will be absent a week or ten days longer.

MISS BARTON COURTS INQUIRY

She Says Her Opponents in the Red Cross Have Made No Definite Charge Against Her Management.

NEW YORK, April 9.—Miss Clara Barton, president of the American National Red Cross, in answer to what her associates say she considers the threats of the opposition to her administration, is said to court the fullest investigation by Congress of the affairs of the rganizatin from her first connection with it.

Miss Mabel T. Bordman, one of the nine active members of the opposition, says she was suspended without a hearing, and cites Bishop Potter, Spencer Trask and Robert C. Ogden as advocating a reorganization of the Red Cross to regain the confidence of the public.

Speaking for Miss Barton, her personal representative says that she is in excellent health, but much worried over all the trouble the Washington "malcontents" had made for her recently.

"As for a congressional investigaton," Miss Barton's representative adds, "Miss Barton neither fears nor opposes it. She would welcome it as the practical manner of having the Washington minority show what they mean by assertions of maladministraton and wasteful management they have been making, but for which, in spite of repeated requests, they have never yet offered a definite, detailed charge."

Orphan Asylum Officers.

The following officers were elected for the St. Louis Protestant Orphan Asylum at a meeting held at the home of Mrs. Charles Nagel: Mrs. William W. Stickney, president; Mrs. Charles H. Wyman of Webster Groves, Mrs. A. J. Steele and Mrs. H. I. Stagg, vice-presidents; Miss Kate Avery of Webster Groves, secretary; Mrs. Fritz Nisbet, treasurer; Mrs. Kate W. Gore of Webster Groves, recorder; Mrs. Alfred Lee, Miss Kate Avery of Webster Groves, Miss Kate Copp, Mrs. Robert Huslicke, Mrs. Henry McK. Wilson, Mrs. H. L. Morrill, Mrs. George B. Leighton, Mrs. Charles Nagel and Mrs. George C. Hitchcock, managers; Mrs. Lewis B. Bailey and Mrs. P. J. Teasdale, advisory managers; Messrs. I. W. Morton, George B. Leighton, Charles Nagel, E. C. Rowse and M. S. Forbes, advisory and investment committee; M. S. Forbes, treasurer of endowment fund; John [illegible] Holmes and Paul Coste, legal advisers; Marshall Baker, physician; Mrs. T. E. ONLY $5 A MONTH

Doctor Jonathan R. Powell will give all persons applying before May 1st an opportunity to be treated by the Bi-Chemic Treatment for the nominal sum of $5 a month, medicines included. He wishes to impress upon the minds of the people that this offer positively expires on the 30th day of April. Many cases are cured in one month's time. The medical profession amazed at the wonderful cures being performed.

Hundreds of people have been unable to pay Doctor Powell's regular fees. Many have written requesting Dr. Powell to treat them at a lower rate. It is Dr. Powell's desire to give all the benefit of his treatment, and as it would be manifestly unjust to treat a few at a special rate and charge others more, he has concluded to treat all persons applying before May 1 for the nominal sum of $5 a month, medicines included. This includes all diseases, and no matter what you may be suffering from you will receive as careful care and attention as you would if you were paying his regular fees. He wishes further to state that many cases are cured in one month's time, but if it should take any longer to complete a cure this low rate will apply until the desired result is reached.

His offices during the past few months have been a veritable Mecca for those suffering from Deafness, Blindness, Lameness and all other Chronic Diseases that human flesh is heir to. Hundreds of homes have been made happier and the people today are sounding the praises of his name. If you wish to take advantage of this unusual offer it is important for you to call as early as possible in order to avoid the rush that will naturally occur during the closing days of this phenomenal offer.

He wishes to impress upon the people that this offer includes consultation, examination, treatment, including his famous X-Ray examination, and all medicines, and no further charge will be made, but in order to get the benefit of it it is absolutely necessary to start treatment on or before the 30th of this month.

DEAFNESS.

Mr. John Brennan, 3921 Folsom street, St. Louis, says: "My deafness started about seven years ago. It gradually grew worse, and finally got so bad that I could not hear the alarm of my clock. I could not hear people talk without great difficulty. The noises in my head almost drove me frantic. Strange as it may seem, the Bi-Chemic Treatment has completely restored my hearing. The noises are gone and I can now hear my clock tick across the room."

STOMACH TROUBLES.

Mr. John Mace, East St. Louis, Ill., says: "I suffered for years with Catarrh of the Stomach. Everything I ate caused me pain and distress. My appetite was poor, and I was weak and debilitated. What I ate would not digest and, consequently, did me no good. I gradually grew weaker until I had to give up work. In this pitiful condition I placed myself under the care of the Bi-Chemic Physicians, and today I am a new man. I have gained [illegible] pounds. I digest my food perfectly, my pain is all gone and I am [illegible] to work."

LUNG TROUBLE.

Mrs. Bertha Hoppman, 3440 Illinois avenue, St. Louis, says: "It gives me great pleasure to recommend the Bi-Chemic Treatment for lung trouble. I was in a very much weakened condition when I began their treatment. I would cough constantly, raise mucus, and, in fact, my lungs were almost destroyed. I lost flesh rapidly and was in great fear that my lungs would collapse. The Bi-Chemic Treatment has completely cured me. I now feel like a new woman."

CATARRH.

Mr. Fritz Winkleman, Venice, Ill., says: "I have been a great sufferer from catarrh for many years. I have tried all forms of remedies and a great many physicians and got no relief until I began treatment with the Bi-Chemic Physicians. I fail to find words to express the gratitude which I owe Dr. Powell for establishing his famous Bi-Chemic treatment in this city."

BI-CHEMIC TREATMENT.

The different tissues of the body are made up of minute cells, and when these cells become disarranged for the lack of proper nutriment the disease is the result. By applying the proper nutriment to the diseased cells perfect health can be obtained. All diseases, no matter how chronic, can be cured by bringing the cells back to their normal condition. Doctor Powell's Bi-Chemic treatment is not allopathic or homeopathic. It is a treatment directed at the diseased cells of the body and such other remedies as each individual may require.

HOME TREATMENT.

Dr. Powell's Bi-Chemic Home Treatment is the most perfect system ever devised. By this method the percentage of cures by mail is fully equal to the number of cures in the office. Write for Home Treatment Symptom Blank and book of testimonials, which will be sent free of charge.

The special $5 offer applies to the Home Treatment as well as to those who call at the office in person.

THE BOOKLOVERS LIBRARY

A Two-Minute Talk

The shares of THE BOOKLOVERS LIBRARY Corporation have had an unparalleled record. The stock is held in the United States, Canada and England by widely known literary, professional and business people. Among the library's shareholders are hundreds of names familiar to almost every cultured home. No broker, or banker, or underwriter has had a hand in the sales. The sole backing of the concern has been its enterprise, its continuous push, and its far-seeing business policy. Every dollar invested shows a hundred cents' worth of extended and established earning capacity.

The plans outlined from time to time have been carried forward in the most aggressive sort of way. We have done what we said we would do. We planned to extend the Booklovers to every important city of the United States; the libraries are there. We promised to include Canada; the two successful centres of Montreal and Toronto are the result; from these cities the service extends to outlying Canadian cities and towns. We made arrangements for extending the work to England; today the Booklovers is the talk of London; it is delivering books throughout Great Britain and includes among its patrons scores of the most distinguished families. We promised an auxiliary library to take care of the field not occupied by the Booklovers; the Tabard Inn, with its revolving bookcases and five-cent exchanges, is extending the library privileges to thousands of country towns; the earnings of this one department at the present time exceed one thousand dollars a day with only one-twentieth of the field covered. This new library department was started only a year ago. In another year it will have earning capacity largely in excess even of the Booklovers. Last fall we announced the preparation of a monthly magazine to round out our publicity plans; to-day The Booklovers Magazine sells out its complete edition by the fifteenth of each month; it is owned independently by shareholders of the parent company, and presents all of the elements of an excellent property.

We are building into the future; the whole book and publishing trade is undergoing rapid and far-reaching changes; there is a new book published in the United States every hour, day and night, and this enormous output must have its distributing machinery. Millions invested in central storehouses of granite or marble can never change the popular current. The American people want an up-to-date service in books as well as in newspapers, and they are willing to pay for it with their own cash. There is no denying the fact that the Booklovers is already a tremendous power among the book interests of the country; it has battled its way to the front, where it means to stay.

We need a central library and office building of our own, and we intend to build one just as soon as a desirable central property in Philadelphia can be secured. This is the next important thing to be done. The block of 50,000 Shares of Stock referred to below has been set aside largely for this purpose.

In connection with this public offer of a comparatively small block of Booklovers stock there are four inside facts which I want to make public over my own signature: 1. The Booklovers earnings during the three months ending February 28th were the largest in the history of the enterprise; 2. The operating expenses per library member were never smaller than at the present time; 3. The "used books" are wholly taken care of at good prices by auxiliary library departments; 4. The Corporation pays cash, and has no debts other than its current monthly accounts.

No additional capital is needed for the Booklovers; the increased capital is being used at the present time to extend the Tabard Inn and other departments; these auxiliary libraries are necessary to round out the best interests of the enterprise at large; they are the "by-products" of the business, and they offer opportunity for very large profits.

The Corporation is capitalized for $2,600,000 (260,000 Shares at $10 each). Of this amount 190,000 Shares have already been subscribed and paid for at the par value of $10, making the present cash capital $1,900,000. There remain in the Treasury only 70,000 Shares. Of this remaining block the Directors have authorized the Treasurer to set aside 50,000 Shares to be offered for sale on May 15th next, at $12 a Share. The terms are 10 per cent with the application and offered to the public in lots of Ten Shares or more at $10 a Share. The terms are 10 per cent. with the application and the balance in sixty days. Stock applied for by telegraph will be held five days to await deposit and formal application. (See form of application below.) The sale of this block of 20,000 Shares at $10 and of the remaining block of 50,000 Shares on May 15th at $12 will give the Company a completely paid-up Capital. This announcement gives the investors the last opportunity they will have of buying Booklovers at $10 a share.

The Booklovers Corporation has paid dividends at the rate of 10 per cent. per year since August 1, 1900. The last half-yearly dividend was paid on February 20th. The half-yearly dividend periods end June 30th and December 31st, respectively. The Corporation has no bonded debts, and its stock when fully paid is non-assessable. All Shares become dividend-bearing from the date of final payment. Dividends are payable in February and August.

PRESIDENT MAY SHOOT AT LIONS

Probably Will Do Some Hunting After All in Yellowstone Park.

GUIDES SAY THERE'S DANGER FROM SNOW

In First Day's Sight-Seeing He Wears Out His Cavalry Guard by Hard Riding Over the Rough Ground.

CINNABAR, Mont., April 9.—President Roosevelt made an early start this morning from his headquarters in the park for an extended trip through certain portions of the reserve.

There is a large number of mountain lions in the park, and, as the authorities are making a determined effort to exterminate them, it is possible the President may get a few shots during his stay.

President Roosevelt and his party entered the Yellowstone Park Wednesday afternoon, to remain for sixteen days. A "chinook" or warm wind, sprang up during the early morning and took off the snow between Livingston and the gateway to the park.

Leaving Gardiner with a small detachment commanded by Lieut. Lesher and Lieut. Johnson, he entered the park at 1:30 p. m. All newspaper men except the Post-Dispatch correspondent were excluded. Upon a worn cayuse the Post-Dispatch correspondent preceded the presidental party as far as Mammoth Hot Springs and the military post, Fort Yellowstone. President Roosevelt had no more than mounted the gray provided for him than he began to exhibit symptoms of strenuousness. Lieut. Lesher and Lieut. Johnson are now bathed in arnica. They are enthusiastic in their admiration of the President's ability to outdo experienced United States cavalry. Lieut. Lesher's horse became so restive under the jerking method followed by the President that it was returned to post. President Roosevelt first walked his horse, then disregarding all military regulations broke into a lope, fell back into a trot and wearied the officers' backs trying to make the pace set by him. Major Pitcher, rather as host to the President than escort, gave him as much activity as he desired.

Scouts, previously located, had espied herds of mountain sheep, deer and elks.

A herd of mountain sheep seemed the greatest attraction to the President. He rode up to them. They moved near and he dismounted. Walking to within twenty paces he sat down, entranced with the beauty and tameness of the animals. For an hour he sat there and then mounted and rode on. At 5 p. m. he reached Fort Yellowstone, but having been told of the herd of buffalo in a canyon, a mile from the fort, galloped across the plaza and inspected the herd.

Buffalo Jones, in charge of the herd, was asked by the President how near he could approach.

"Until they more," responded Jones. Like a flash came the retort: "Which way will they move?"

Jones quizzically replied: "Well, Mr. President, it's hard to tell, but sartin 'tis that they'll move."

At 6 o'clock the President returned to Maj. Pitcher's residence to spend the night. In the evening the officers tendered him a reception. Orders were issued for the camp moving outfit to be ready at daylight.

Grizzled old guides, prospectors, trappers and men of experience say the President is committing an act of rashness in entering the park at this season of the year. They claim that during this month the park is more dangerous, because of high winds, snow storms, landslides, snow slides, and that he will be lucky if he does not meet with some unpleasant adventure.

Snow flurries occur almost every day. These flurries are most severe, while they last, and would be regarded in the east or out of the Rockies, as a severe snow storm. Throughout the park at this season, a wild wind blows, tearing off huge limbs from the trees, and driving the snow with such force that it cuts the face like bits of glass.

Great banks of swirling snow constantly change the landscape, making a return trip almost impossible, except with the most experienced guides. Great avalanches of snow, piled high on the mountain side, appear almost momentarily to be about to fall, sweeping away and burying everything within their path.

The President is accompanied by the most experienced men in the park, and in addition, has the detachment of cavalry, the men of which are thoroughly familiar with every portion of the park, because of their constant patrol. Every precaution will be taken to prevent an accident happening to the President and the members of his party.

Mr. Roosevelt will be in almost daily communication with Secretary Loeb.

CLERGY TO MEET ROOSEVELT.

Roman Catholic Pastors to Have President as Guest.

Invitations have been received by the leading Catholic pastors of St. Louis for a dinner to be given in the St. Louis University April 29, at which President Roosevelt will be the guest of honor.

The invitations are regarded by the clergy as an indication of closer relations in the future between the Jesuit and diocesan priests. President Roosevelt accepted the invitation to be present that he might witness the defense of the Catholic doctrines to be presented by Rev. J. Villalonga, a candidate for degrees who has spent five years on the work to be present there.

NEW SEVEN-STORY BUILDING

Site for Modern Structure Purchased by Adolph Lopez.

A modern seven-story fireproof building will be put up by Adolph Lopez at the southeast corner of Eleventh and Lucas avenue as soon as he can get possession of the premises, of which he is now the owner. He has purchased 37 feet and 6 inches of ground, which, added to what he already possesses there, gives him a frontage of 75 feet by a depth of 66 feet and 8 inches. Construction will begin about July 1.

The Rutledge & Kilpatrick Real Estate Co., as Lopez's agents, sold the three-story and basement commercial building at 1017 Lucas avenue to N. C. Dougherty for $30,000. The dimensions of the lot are 58x105.

Lopez in turn purchased the 37 feet 6 inches at Eleventh and Lucas from Mrs. Mary O. Harbaugh for $43,500. The Rutledge & Kilpatrick Co. also sold for Newton C. Dougherty 1570 feet of the Clairmont Annex on East St. Louis. Samuel Harding was the purchaser and paid $16,000 cash.

Miss Dalton, Librarian.

Louise Dalton has been selected as librarian for the Missouri Historical Society at 1020 Locust, vice Miss Margery Dawson, resigned.

Prescription No. 2851 by Elmer & Amend will not cure all complaints, but it will cure rheumatism.

He Is First to Marry.

Dr. R. B. H. Gradwohl of 3844 Olive street, will entertain the members of the St. Louis High school class of 1898 at dinner at the St. Nicholas Hotel Tuesday night at a wedding supper. The dinner is given as the result of an agreement made at the time of graduation that the first member of the class should give a supper to the other members.

World's Fair Officials Compute City's Accommodations at 53,769, Two Thirds Taken.

World's Fair officials have completed the canvass made for the purpose of ascertaining how many visitors St. Louis can accommodate during the World's Fair dedication ceremonies. Hotels, rooming houses and boarding houses will be able to furnish accommodations for 13,113 more than are now housed by them.

Every day reports are received from property owners who are converting their properties into lodging houses, and the Fair officials are confident that all who come will be taken care of. A bureau of information has been established in the Laclede building. The canvassers made the following return of the number of hotels, boarding houses and dwellings: Hotels, 127; rooming-houses, 1164; boarding-houses, 2741; dwellings where rooms can be had, 156; total, 4188. Total capacity, 53,769 persons.

Two-thirds of the accommodations, it is estimated, are now taken.

Illinois Central's Big Mortgage.

CHICAGO, April 9.—A mortgage of $3,000,000 given by the Illinois Central Railroad Co. to the United States Trust Co. of New York has been filed for record. It is designated as the Illinois Central Railroad Co.'s extended first mortgage gold bonds, matures April 1, 1951, and bears 3½ per cent interest.

"The square peg in the round hole" figuratively expresses the use of means unsuited to the desired end. A great many people who have been cured of dyspepsia and other diseases of the stomach and its allied organs of digestion and nutrition by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery say: "We tried many medicines with only temporary benefit. It was not until we began the use of 'Golden Medical Discovery' that we found a complete and lasting cure."

It is undoubtedly true that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery holds the record for the perfect and permanent cure of indigestion and other diseases of the stomach and associated organs of digestion and nutrition. It is not a palliative. It cures the cause of disease and builds up the body with solid healthy flesh, not flabby fat.

"It is with pleasure that I tell you what Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pellets' have done for me," writes Mrs. T. M. Palmer, of Pecde, Kaufman Co., Texas. "Two years ago I was taken with stomach and bowel trouble. Everything I ate would put me in distress. I lived two weeks on milk and even that gave me pain. I felt as though I would starve to death. Three doctors attended me—one said I had dyspepsia, two said catarrh of the stomach and bowels. They attended me (one at a time) for one year. I stopped taking their medicine and tried other patent medicine; got no better, and I grew so weak and nervous my heart would flutter. I could not do any kind of work. Now I can do my house work very well; am gaining in flesh and strength, and can eat anything I want."

Accept no substitute for Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one cent stamps for the paper covered book, or 31 stamps for the cloth bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

SOCIETY

One of the prettiest and most interesting of the Lenten weddings was that of Miss Susie Bringhurst and Mr. Jesse R. Wilkenson Wednesday evening at the studio of the bride's uncle, Mr. Robert P. Bringhurst of 1820 Locust street. The bride was unattended and was beautiful in her bridal robe of white Paris mull, prettily trimmed with lace insertions and frills, and she carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Mary Cerf played the wedding march from Lohengrin as the bride and bridegroom entered the studio. Rev. Dr. Charles performed the ceremony, after which a bridal supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Wilkenson will go directly to housekeeping at 3728 Evans avenue. They will postpone their wedding trip until June.

Mrs. Wilkenson was well known in Jerseyville, Ill., where she made her home previous to coming to St. Louis, two years ago, to make her home with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Bringhurst. Mr. Wilkenson is well known in art circles.

The wedding of Miss Lillie Belle Harry and Mr. French Nelson will be celebrated Thursday evening at the First Christian Church. The bride will be attended by Miss Jannette Harry of Dallas, Tex., as maid of honor, and by Miss Margaret Nelson of Kansas City, a sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Margaret Brewer of Dallas, Tex., as bridemaids. Mr. Nelson will have as his best man Mr. William Franklin Scott and Messrs. George Mickel and Arthur Nelson, both of Kansas City, as groomsmen. Mr. Roy Atwood, Mr. Perley Burton, Mr. Jesse Woolridge of Kansas City and Dr. William Garth Teel will usher.

There will be an informal reception at the residence of the bride's parents after the church ceremony.

Easter Millinery.

Our Easter millinery for "grown-ups" is beyond newspaper description. We have never been able to secure so many extreme novelties of beauty and style as this season. If you prefer originals you will find them here and not exorbitantly priced, but the beautiful results of our own work room sold minus the duty paid by those over-sea models, have been voted quite as attractive by all who have inspected them.

Our Children's Hats do not suffer by comparison with those for older people. In fact we pride ourselves on having by far the most genuinely youthful and tasteful hats ever brought to St. Louis for children.

This Nobby Easter Hat, Very Stylish

This style hat is best suited for stout ladies. It is a very pretty design and quite inexpensive. If the hair is sufficiently long, thick and glossy, it should be dressed compadour to secure the best effect, otherwise it will be necessary to treat the hair for 30 or 60 days with Danderine. Just a few applications of this great hair invigorating tonic will make the hair fairly sparkle with new life and vigor, and its continued use for a few months will make the hair grow thicker, longer and more beautiful than ever without changing the natural color a particle.

FREE To show how quickly Danderine acts we will send a large sample free by return mail to any one who sends this advertisement to the KNOWLTON DANDERINE CO., Chicago, with their name and address and 10 cents in silver or stamps to pay postage. NOW, at all druggists, in three sizes, 25c., 50c. and $1.00 per bottle.

PIANO TALK NUMBER 3.

We Want to Tell You This Week of a Number of Pianos

We Are Going to Clear Out at Greatly Reduced Prices and Why We Do So.

By way of a little diversion from piano history which we have been telling you about for a number of weeks, we want to call your particular attention to a matter, which, if you need a piano now, or will have to buy one in the next two years, it should be of more than ordinary interest to you.

You may not be aware of it, but custom makes it necessary for piano factories to change their case styles every year or so. Well, word has just come to us, as announced in the Sunday papers, that three of the high-grade piano factories that we deal with are now changing their case styles, and they advise us to close out any of the discontinued styles we may have on hand.

In going over our stock we found thirty-seven of these styles to be discontinued on hand and we decided to close them out at most remarkable bargain prices and on our very easy payment plan, if desired.

Here are five nice $250 and $300 pianos marked to close out at $148 to $183. Cash or $10 to $15 cash; $5 or $6 per month will buy them.

Of course there not being many of these, they will all go in a short time, in fact, seven of these discontinued styles were sold Monday.

Then there are six or eight $325 and $350 and $400 pianos, various makes, discontinued styles, plainly marked to sell at $210, $255 to $285.

Terms cash, or $15 to $20 cash; $6 to $8 per month.

In this lot of new discontinued styles there are a number of very fine highest grade cabinet grand uprights that retail all the way from $425 to $560. Our prices on these to close them out range from $275 to $360. Terms cash or payments $20 to $25 cash; $5 to $10 per month buys them.

We have an unusual number of second-hand upright pianos on hand now on account of house cleaning and moving time, which we are offering at much lower prices than their present worth.

A used Hale upright, only $90. A Hardman upright, good condition, only $125. Emerson upright, splendid condition, only $140. Stone upright, old style case but fair playing condition, only $80. Pleyel upright, imported make, pretty old, but will do to learn on, only $55. A Kimball upright, $500 style, used only short time, only $225. Hinze upright, like new, $190, and others. These are genuine snaps and go quickly. An early call at our store will pay you.

"Saved My Life and Kept Me from Insane Asylum"

Mrs. Wilcox Is Now In Perfect Health Through No Other Agency Than

Paine's Celery Compound

The absolute need of an honest and genuine invigorator and health giver in the spring season is deeply impressed on the mind of every thinking and intelligent man and woman.

The happy cure of Mrs. J. E. Wilcox, of Winters, Cal., through the use of Paine's Celery Compound, created widespread astonishment and joy amongst her friends and neighbors who were exceedingly anxious regarding her condition.

The best medical treatment failed even to give Mrs. Wilcox a few days of relief from her sufferings of mind and body. At last, Paine's Celery Compound saved her from a terrible end and planted her feet firmly on the rock of health.

Read Mrs. Wilcox's letter of testimony, [illegible] reader, and if you remain obdurate [illegible] believing after such an earnest and [illegible] confession of cure, nothing but [illegible] effect of Providence can snatch you [illegible] dangers and perils of your position.

Mrs. Wilcox says:

"It [illegible] my duty to tell you what Paine's Celery Compound did for me. Some years ago my head troubled me so that it seemed I should be crazy. It was caused by overstudy. I asked the advice of two doctors who gave me medicine to no effect, and I did not know what I would do. I did not want to see any one, everything seemed so strange. I had a tired, dragging feeling, my bowels were out of order, my kidneys troubled me, and I felt badly, but before I had taken half of one bottle of Paine's Celery Compound I felt like a new person. Four bottles cured me, and I would recommend it to all who feel the way I did. I cannot say half enough, for I know it saved me [illegible] kept me from imprisonment [illegible] asylum, which is as bad a

FOUND A FRIEND ON HIS DEATH BED

St. Louis has her own Florence Nightingale in the person of Mrs. Lucie Fanger, of 1216 Missouri avenue. Through days of suffering and weakness, through nights of tossing restlessness, this devoted woman sat by the bedside of Emil Wolff, as he lay during eight weeks of the last ravages of consumption at the Lutheran Hospital.

Day by day the racking cough grew worse, the terrible feebleness increased; finally, last Monday, the consumptive was released from his sufferings. He was buried on Wednesday in Bethlehem Cemetery.

Then it was found that the dead man had done all that lay in his power to repay the goodness he had so fully appreciated. By his will, which now speaks for him, he leaves all his property to Mrs. Fanger. His relatives he cuts off with $1.

"Because of my friendship and affection for Lucie Fanger, wife of Joseph Fanger," reads the will, "I devise to her the residue of all my property, real, personal and mixed."

The will was filed for probate on Wednesday. Charles Peters and Thomas B. Edwards, who were Wolff's attorneys during his lifetime, are named as executors without bond. It is expected that the estate will amount to a considerable sum.

Mrs. Fanger is modest about her part in the affair. "I only did my plain duty," she said on Thursday. "My husband and I had known Mr. Wolff for 10 years. The moment I heard that the poor fellow was sick and suffering at the hospital I felt that I was called to do everything humanly possible to aid and comfort him.

RATHELL'S DECREE FILED

It Shows That Youthful Bridegroom Obtained a Divorce From Wife Who Is Suing Him for Divorce.

In answer to the petition of Olive Ulrich Rathell for divorce from Samuel T. Rathell, Jr., the defendant, by Attorney Frank Ottofy, Thursday morning filed in Judge Wood's court a copy of a decree of the circuit court of Newton County, Mo., granting him a divorce from the plaintiff.

This decree shows that a divorce was granted him June 1, 1900, on a petition filed Feb. 21, 1900.

The petition recites that they were married at Belleville, Aug. 28, 1898.

She charges in her petition that Rathell deserted her two days later. Rathell, in the Newton County petition, declared that four days after they were married they were en route from the Planters' Hotel to his father's home in Cabanne place, when the bride left the street car and he never saw her subsequently.

The petition says that Rathell was only 17 years old at the time.

WILL PROSECUTE MILK MEN.

Compliance With City Ordinances to Be Enforced During Summer.

Milk dealers who do not conform to the city ordinances governing the sale of milk are to be vigorously prosecuted during the summer months, and that ignorance of the law may be no excuse City Chemist Teichman Thursday issued a circular of information on milk.

Several hundred dairies have been inspected and one in every five has been found in an unsanitary condition. Of 531 samples of milk analyzed since Nov. 23, 137 have been found to contain preservatives or adulterants, and in most cases prosecution and conviction of dealer or dairyman has followed.

Ten days are allowed the dairyman to conform to the law after the first inspection. Unless marked improvement is shown in both quality of milk and cleanliness of premises prosecution follows.

Owing to the rapid propagation of germ in milk which is not kept cool the use of refrigerants in wagons and depots will be insisted upon.

Excuse me, Craymer, I must go to Boshmer for my Easter shoes.

AURORA ZOUAVES WILL DRILL.

Many Startling Features Promised for the First Circus Season.

The Adam Forepaugh and Sells Brothers united shows will open the circus season in St. Louis, April 20, remaining for six days and giving two performances daily. Advance notices promise "the most vivid, picturesque, dazzling and bewildering aggregation of skilled artists yet seen in the sawdust arena."

Among the big attractions announced to appear is Diavolo's thrilling loop the loop on a bicycle. Other features will be the Ryan and Zorella family of aerialists, the Aurora Zouaves, said to be the best drilled soldiers in the world and who have just returned from a tour of England. Then there will be twenty-three champion riders and four herds of performing elephants.

The four trains bearing the circus from winter quarters near Columbus, O., will arrive in St. Louis Wednesday.

HAD NO BUILDING PERMIT.

Judge Tracy Fined Man $500 for Violating Ordinance.

Five hundred dollars fine, the maximum penalty was imposed on Max Mintz of 1122-28 South Seventh street in the First District Police Court, Thursday, for having erected, without a bulding permit, a row of frame buildings at the foregoing number inside the fire limits.

Mintz was absent from court and the fine was charged against his bondsman. The evidence throughout showed that there are high billboards along Seventh street, and that the houses were built just back of the billboards, where they would not be seen by policemen, unless special attention was called to them. It was shown that Mintz had made two attempts before the buildings were put up to get permits for them, but had been refused.

Aunt Seeks Her Niece.

Mrs. Margaret Kinelly of Rochester, N. Y., is in St. Louis looking for her niece, Miss Mary Donahue, whom she has not seen for six years. Miss Donahue was once a governess in a wealthy St. Louis family. Messages from her niece will be received by Mrs. Kinelly at Peter Carr's grocery store, Twenty-third street and Washington avenue. Mrs. Kinelly will depart for Dubuque in a few days.

Haywood White Stricken.

Haywood White, 32 years old, was stricken with paralysis Wednesday evening while he was standing at Sixteenth and Chestnut streets. He fell to the sidewalk and was helpless. A crowd quickly assembled and some one called the ambulance. At the dispensary it was found that his entire right side was paralyzed, and he was sent to the City Hospital. His home is at 810 Chestnut street.

WHY SOME MEN SUCCEED!

A MAN'S SUCCESS is largely due to his ability to learn things and to put what he knows into practice. If the Encyclopaedia Britannica can give you the living facts about any trade, profession or calling—teach you iron-working, chemistry, engineering, science, philosophy or history—can you afford to go without it, especially when you may now get it for a few cents a day? It contains the kind of knowledge that helps men to succeed.

The Encyclopaedia Britannica is without a peer. It supplies just the sort of information the busy man needs from day to day. With its 25,000 pages teeming with thought and facts, written by 2000 of the ablest minds in the world, it represents the highest sum total of human learning and research. That is what critics mean when they call it the one standard encyclopaedia.

A COLLEGE AT HOME.

In the ENCYCLOPAEDIA BRITANNICA you have:

1. A corps of teachers of recognized authority.
2. A series of special articles on every important subject, many of which have been reprinted as text books for use in schools.
3. An outline course of reading which will guide you along private lines of work.
4. A mine of general facts always open to you, giving a fund of knowledge unsurpassed by any college curriculum.
5. A wise friend to cultivate during your spare moments, or during the long winter evenings.

AND THE PRICE IS SPECIAL.

By reason of our large advertising contracts we have been enabled to supply the New Twentieth Century Edition of this peerless work at remarkably low terms and direct to customers, giving THEM the benefit of the middlemen's profit. An enormous number of sets have been thus distributed during the last few months—no less than 252 carloads!—a greater sale than all other encyclopaedias combined.

WHAT IS SAID OF IT.

"It is without a peer in the whole noble army of encyclopaedias."
LYMAN ABBOTT, D. D.

"The Encyclopaedia Britannica is king of its tribe."
PROF. DAVID SWING.

"The most useful reference book for young or old is the Encyclopaedia Britannica. Children beginning at 10 years old and on, need its stories of historical, biographical, mythological, elementary scientific, natural history information. The eager boy can study baloons, kinds of dogs or firearms, locomotives, habits of the house fly or cockroach. The youth may want information on subjects from geology or electricity to the settlements of the Fiji Islands or volcanoes and earthquakes, or a most fascinating story of Napoleon; and for the still older, all the fundamental conceptions of law, medicine, theology, ethics, sociology, curves and functions, architecture art—all the way up, perhaps, to the origin of some fine editorial on Chinese metaphysics. Whether for education or information, no man who once has this book will ever let himself or his children be without access to it. If another deluge came and the ark had room but for one secular book, this is beyond any doubt the one."—CLEMENT BATES, Judge of Court, Cincinnati, Ohio.

MONITOR TO ARRIVE HERE APRIL 27

Arkansas Leaves Memphis on Trip Up River Under Orders to Visit Paducah, Evansville, Hickman and Cairo.

PLENTY OF WATER FOR VOYAGE, SAYS CAPTAIN

Formidable Craft Could Reach Destination Early, but Navy Department Times Arrival for Fair Dedication.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 9.—The monitor Arkansas weighed anchor this morning and steamed up the river on her voyage to St. Louis.

At Cairo she will stop long enough to take on a pilot, who will guide her up the Ohio river for stops at Hickman and Paducah, in Kentucky, and Evansville, Ind. Possibly other towns may be visited.

On her return she will stop at Cairo and, probably, Chester.

According to the government's orders, the vessel will anchor off the port of St. Louis April 27. She could reach her destination many days earlier, but she is to be one of the World's Fair dedication attractions, and the navy department does not wish her to get in more than three days before the festivities are to begin.

Capt. Vreeland, in discussing the monitor's voyage, said last night:

Easy Voyage, Says Captain.

"We have had an easy voyage. The channel has been deep enough the entire route we have traversed. We draw only 13 feet of water and do not expect any trouble.

"The Arkansas was built at Newport News, Va. I do not remember how long they were in constructing her, but she was commissioned for the service in October, 1902.

"She was designed by the bureau of construction of the navy department.

"We started from Annapolis on our journey to St. Louis. The vessel had been stationed there for some months for the purpose of giving instruction to the midshipmen.

"We stopped at Key West on our way around to the delta and after crossing the bay put in at New Orleans, where the vessel was coaled. We paused at New Orleans 24 hours.

"Our next stops were at Donaldsonville, Vicksburg, Arkansas City and Helena. We remained a day at each of those places.

"I regret exceedingly that our stay here will not be longer, but it is necessary that we make our stay short because of the numerous stops the vessel will make between here and St. Louis. We will reach there by the 27th, because we must be present at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition dedication.

"From Memphis we will proceed to Osceola and from there to Hickman, Ky. If the conditions in the Ohio are favorable we will go to Evansville for a brief stay.

"Concerning the further movements of the vessel I am unable to tell you anything. We must be in St. Louis on the 27th if we have to change our plans."

The pride of the monitor is her baseball team, which has just been organized. It hopes to play teams at all stopping places, and several games are wanted in St. Louis.

It challenged the Memphis team, but "The" Breitenstein said the grounds were too wet.

Ship's Baseball Team Wants St. Louis Game.

The officers and members of the crew of the Arkansas are exceedingly courteous in their treatment of the public and visitors are always welcomed. The sailors act as guides and explain the mechanism of the vessel.

To the uninitiated, the Arkansas has the appearance of being in a sinking condition. Three-fourths of her hull is under water. Like the historic Monitor she resembles "a cheese box on a raft."

She has water tight compartments that may be filled when she goes into battle under her deck is flush with the surface of the water. She is thus converted into a powerful agent of destruction, presenting little surface as target for the enemy's guns.

The monitors are considered among the most effective fighting craft man has invented.

The vessel carries a complement of 13 officers and 160 men. Her displacement is 3200 tons. She has a twin screw propeller and her engines are 2000 horsepower. For the first time in history the people of St. Louis will have an opportunity to see what the great new guns of the naval powers are like.

The Nashville was here some years ago and attracted some attention, but the latter is a pigmy compared to the Arkansas.

While the Arkansas is not a first-class battleship, she carries guns equally as powerful as any modern first-class battleship afloat.

Her armament consists of two 12-inch rifles, four 4-inch rifles, three 6-pounders, a number of one-pounders and Colt machine guns.

Her Twelve-Inch Rifles the Most Effective.

A few vessels in our navy, such as the Indiana and one or two vessels of the British navy, carry guns larger, being 13 inches in diameter. But the consensus of opinion among experts is that the 12-inch rifle is equally as powerful as the 13-inch gun, if not more effective. Thus it may be said with truth that the Arkansas carries the strongest guns afloat.

The huge 12-inch rifles in the forward turret will necessarily attract great attention in St. Louis. These guns, costing tens of thousands of dollars each, will be open for inspection, and the delicate machinery of the breech blocks will be explained and visitors will be shown the little electric railway known as the "ammunition hoist," through which the cartridges are sent up to the turret from the 12-inch magazine down in the bottom of the ship.

It will be well, too, for the World's Fair visitors to bear in mind the purpose of this curious craft.

She is not intended as a roamer of the high seas, but is primarily for the defense of harbors and of the estuaries of great rivers like the Mississippi. One ship like the Arkansas down at Vicksburg or New Orleans might hold the Mississippi against the combined naval power of any navy which might attempt to ascend the river. Herein lies her formidable character. Anchored in smooth water a vessel like the Arkansas has almost the effective fighting strength of a ship like the Iowa or the Kentucky, both of which are long-range, seagoing craft, and under certain circumstances the Arkansas might be found even more effective in war than a first-class battleship of this type.

The Arkansas is not pretty to look at, but she could within a period of hardly more than an hour destroy the entire United States navy of 30 years ago. No ship of her dimensions and power except a monitor could ascend the Mississippi river as far as St. Louis. In coming up the river she stands high out of the water and her draught is light. She can thus go into places where no battleship carrying 13-inch guns could follow her.

KEENE QUITS MARKET; HIS POOL LOST MILLIONS

He Will Go to Europe for a Complete Rest Without Carrying Any Stock Market Commitments, and Is Not a Heavy Loser.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, April 9.—James R. Keene has completed his short contracts in the market, got rid of his odds and ends, closed out his speculative securities, and is preparing for a vacation of several months in England. At least this is the story that is current in Wall street, and it is generally believed, although Mr. Keene's representatives are not inclined to discuss it.

It is known, however, that the great operator has determined to seek rest and quiet, and to that end has leased an estate in England, where he will live for several months. His only recreation will be found in attending the principal race meets, in which he has many entries. It is said that Mr. Keene will sail for England as soon as his health permits. He does not desire to be burdened with any stock market commitments.

It is common report in Wall street that what Mr. Keene has lost in his Southern Pacific venture he has made up in his campaign on the short side of the market which began about three months ago.

In the meantime the dissolution of the Southern Pacific pool is being arranged for. The pool originally terminated by limitation on April 1, but it was extended by agreement until April 10. As the stock market will be closed on Friday and Saturday, the certificates still held by the pool manager will not be delivered until next Monday, when Talbot J. Taylor & Co. will turn over the stock in receipt for the checks, and one of the greatest speculative deals in modern years will have terminated.

GEN. WOOD'S PRESS AGENT HAD RICH GRAFT IN CUBA

Gave Balls in Government Building With Free Military Music and Charged Five Dollars a Ticket.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

CINCINNATI, April 9.—Maj. Estes G. Rathbone, former director of posts in Cuba, was asked today if he had known "Capt. Bellairs" in Cuba.

"Bellairs" recently sprang into notoriety as the author of "As It Is in the Philippines," which was withdrawn from the market by the publishers.

"I knew Bellairs very well," said Maj. Rathbone. "He has been called Gen. Wood's press agent in Cuba. He was more than that; he was his social mentor. It was Bellairs who arranged the social functions, the balls and the formal dinners. He always led the cotillion.

"Bellairs arranged two large balls, which were held in the Masonic Temple building, which was government property. The great hall was decorated at the government's expense. The music was furnished by the military bands without cost to Bellairs. His only expense was for favors and cakes and programs. Five dollars a ticket was charged and hundreds attended.

"Bellairs organized a racing association or jockey club, with a track at Buena Vista, a suburb of Havana, and races were given frequently."

LARGEST WEST OF THE MISSISSIPPI
—BY—
100,000

Tom Johnson's circus has opened its season in Cleveland.

"Snake" Kinney seems to have picked his majority before the election.

Delegate Fontana doubtless still has hopes of warming the mayor's chair.

Doodling is extra hazardous in Missouri. The price of legislation is rising.

BRIBERY IN THE STATE LEGISLATURE.

The Post-Dispatch finds special cause for gratification in the developments of the grandjury investigation into the boodle scandals of the State Legislature. These developments, which promise to expose the villainy of the lobby and its legislative tools, are the direct result of the long, vigorous, unceasing fight conducted by the Post-Dispatch alone against the lobby evil.

The Post-Dispatch has exposed and denounced the operations of every lobby in Jefferson City. It published the facts of the great scandal of the street railway consolidation law during Gov. Stephens' administration, and demanded an investigation in vain. It exposed every step of the baking powder boodle deals, including the part played by former Governor and present United State Senator Wm. J. Stone in the promoting of trust legislation.

It was by persistently exposing the scandalous deals in alum and other legislation that the Post-Dispatch succeded in securing a grandjury investigation which has brought out startling facts showing the use of money in large sums to influence legislation.

Both Circuit Attorney Folk and Attorney-General Crow publicly thank the Post-Dispatch for its efforts to uncover the boodle scandals and for the information which has enabled them to secure results in the investigation.

This information, while gratifying in that it supplies the means of discovering crime, is deeply humiliating to the people of Missouri. The facts given to the public prosecutors by Lieutenant-Governor John A. Lee make it imperative that he answer to the people for his conduct during this and the previous session of the Legislature.

Lieutenant-Governor Lee appointed the Orchard committee which smothered the bill repealing the pure food law during the session of 1901, and his actions favored the lobby.

His own statement of his dealings with Kelley, the agent of the Baking Powder Trust, places him in the most astounding position. He says that Kelley on numerous occasions tried to intimce him to accept a bribe, and on one occasion told him that he (Kelley) had $15,000 to use in the Legislature.

Yet the lieutenant-governor, having been offered a bribe again and again and knowing the intention of Kelley to bribe legislators, not only failed to denounce him and to inform the Senate of the facts, but actually cast the deciding vote for the trust's measure and subsequently published a carefully prepared argument in its favor which has since been used as an advertisement by the trust.

It should be borne in mind that the check offered as evidence by Lieutenant-Governor Lee was made out after he had voted for the Baking Powder Trust's measure and was sent to him after the adjournment of the Legislature, and after the investigation had begun. It was held from March 25 to April 7.

In this transaction it is difficult to decide which was the more generous—the lieutenant-governor who says he refused a bribe, but cheerfully did the will of the boodle agent, or the boodle agent who, according to the lieutenant-governor's testimony, after the work was done cheerfully and without any obligation paid $1000 to the virtuous statesman who had refused pay for doing the work.

Lieutenant-Governor Lee is not only a witness for the state, but a defendant before the bar of public opinion.

Humiliating also to the people of the State is the connection of Senator Stone with scandalous legislation promoted by the trust which Kelley represents. Senator Stone was the Missouri branch of the alleged National Health Society, of which Kelley was president. It represents the interests of the Baking Powder Trust in Congress and in State Legislatures. Senator Stone, while advocating the legislation handled by Boodle Agent Kelley, posed as the representative of a bogus Public Healthy Society, which he asserted was "composed of many good men and women in different parts of Missouri."

But the whole truth must be brought out. The people should know who have betrayed their interests. Every guilty man should be punished.

Strange to say, not one Missouri punster has advised Page to turn over a new leaf.

THE CHICAGO ELECTION.

The election of Carter Harrison in Chicago was another em-tic declaration by the people of that city that they desired icipal ownership of public utilities at the earliest possible parties professed adherence to the principle of public p, but the Republicans adopted it with a difference. The of the traction companies are about to expire and ne Stewart, the Republican nominee, proposed that newed with guarantees of improved service, leaving estion open for subsequent discussion. It was vague- hat favorable terms would be made with the com- the properties might be turned over to the city. ustain this policy was that the service was su- hat the obvious thing to do at present was nt at once. It was argued that conditions me could be preparing for the assumption of ownership by the municipality. Imminent, pressing necessity overbore all other considerations.

The Democrats, on the other hand, following Harrison's lead, declared that delay would be dangerous. Harrison insisted that no further grant be made the companies until the necessary legislation could be procured from the legislature. Especially he demanded that the traction people surrender their claims, under an ancient franchise of doubtful validity which will not expire for some thirty years, before they be granted any more franchises, even of a temporary, provisional character. And the people were told it was better for them to bear the existing evil for a time rather than yield any advantage to the franchise seekers, whose promises were held of little or no value.

Some months ago the people of Chicago by an overwhelming majority signified their approval of the principle of municipal ownership and their desire to apply it when the opportunity should arrive. That they have not changed their views is apparent in the re-election of Mayor Harrison.

The gift of a magnificent building to the Academy of Science by Mrs. McMillan and her son, William Northrop McMillan, is a shining example of St. Louis public spirit. May the New St. Louis see it followed by many other New St. Louisans.

THOSE COMBINE VICTORIES.

"It was a well-earned victory," said Mr. Hawes concerning the result of Tuesday's election.

Victory for what? There was no issue on the council. There was a boodle issue represented by the ignoring of the boodle prosecutions in the Democratic city platform and the Democratic organization; and the candidacy of members of the boodle combine for the House of Delegates.

The Post-Dispatch found some comfort in the defeat of two combine men—Koeln, a Republican, and Geraghty, a Democrat. But no credit for this victory is due to the Democratic organization. The machine supported Geraghty and the four Democratic combine members of the House who were re-elected. Not one of them was repudiated by any Democratic leader or Democratic speaker. Mr. Hawes spoke from the platform later occupied by ex-Speaker Kelley, an indicted boodler and convicted perjurer. The machine organization worked for and with the combine members, and party campaign funds were expended in their interest.

Was there a well-earned victory in the fact that one-half of the voters of St. Louis believed it was useless to go to the polls and vote against a solid combination of police, election officers and election laws that shelter fraud and protect election criminals?

If a new combine shall be formed in the House of Delegates the responsibility for it must be charged directly to the Democratic party of the city, which gave the House nominations to the wardheelers and supported, aided and effected the re-election of men whose records in the House were a disgrace to St. Louis.

Sixteen years ago President Roosevelt was sheriff of Billings County, North Dakota. Mr. Cleveland was a sheriff before being elected to the presidency. As sheriffs have so much to do with executions, why is not a sheriff a proper person for the office of chief executive?

The turning down of Mr. Folk in the city has added thousands to the number of his friends in the country. The bad opinion of St. Louis out in the state is likely to do us a great deal of harm.

For many years the press of the South has been urging diversified farming, and now Secretary of Agriculture Wilson has gone down to convince the planters.

The Fifty-fourth Iowa regiment will bring its regimental band. A great many bands will be necessary if such a procession as that of April 30 is to keep step.

The Postoffice Department is evidently in a bad way. More kinds of scandals are found than in any other institution in the country.

The old saying that "no question is settled until it is settled right," seems about to be verified by the reopening of the Dreyfus case.

The street railway regulation bill will go into effect in a few days. But it will not be effective until the court passes upon it.

It isn't so bad, the Council won't allow the House of Delegates to sell us out, even if that body should be so disposed.

The burglar who breaks open a child's bank need expect little mercy, even from a jury of old bachelors.

The election didn't bring much encouragement, but we may continue to indulge the pleasures of hope.

If Emperor William and King Edward ever visit this country they will surely be made LL. D.'s.

There will be a rush to see the agrostologist when the World's Fair crowd reaches St. Louis.

Has Miss Hephzibah Pyncheon been reincarnated? Has not a Vanderbilt opened a shop?

Dr. Roosevelt and President Roosevelt will be equally welcome to St. Louis .

THE POST-DISPATCH DAILY MAGAZINE

JUST A MINUTE WITH THE POST-DISPATCH POET AND PHILOSOPHER

THE HONEST VOTER'S SAY.

No, please, now, Miss St. Louis,
Don't frown at me at all:
I did the best I could for you;
I harkened to your call.
I knew that you were "in bad,"
That you were full of woe,
And tried to save you, honestly,
As all the world must know.

I knew you had been kidnaped
By a hostile Indian band;
That you were held for ransom, like
A queen in a foreign land.
I hurried to the rescue
And tried to save you then
From such a mercenary, fierce,
Abandoned crowd of men.

Though I was single-handed,
I hastened when you called,
Though by your sad predicament
My spirit was appalled.
But I was overpowered,
And now I weep to see
That you are still in bondage, with
No hope of being free.

On the Dizzy Heights.

David R. Francis has achieved the pinnacle of greatness.

"How?" you may inquire.

By being Mayor of St. Louis?

By being Governor of Missouri?

By being Secretary of the Interior in President Cleveland's cabinet?

By being president of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition Company, the builder of the World's Fair, the greatest that ever?

Did he achieve greatness by making a meteoric trip over land and sea as the international press agent of the World's Fair, hobnobbing with emperors, presidents and kings and setting all civilization to talking about him and the mammoth enterprise he represents?

No, through none of these distinctions or performances, but through a feat more mighty.

Well, then, how big is David Francis, pa, that people call him great? Is he like old Goliath, tall, his spear an hundredweight?

No, no, my son—about as large as I or Uncle James. 'Tis not his stature makes him great, but the greatness of his name.

David R. Francis is big enough to ignore a grandjury summons after having been personally served by a deputy sheriff, to escape jury duty without fine or imprisonment or both, without appearing in court, sending word or in any way offering the slightest excuse for his failure to comply with the mandate of the law, and to have the judge apologize for him, in the bargain, as being "probably the busiest man in St. Louis."

Now, if that isn't reaching the pinnacle of human greatness, what do you call it?

Nicht War?

Never count on weather.
Time will have its fling.
Shifting like a feather,
Ever on the wing.
He will promise (whether
It or not may sting)
For whole days together
Any sort of thing.
Good or bad or otherwise,
Even under cloudy skies.
Weather is a thing like fate—
Always early or too late.

Still, is it to be wondered at that European "art" dealers are selling our millionaires a lot of bogus goods when Senator W. A. Clark, after paying $100,000 for a rug, admitted with a smile that he couldn't tell "the right side" of it to save his life?

Many election frauds are reported at Springfield, Ill. Springfield is destined to be a great city some day.

What this country needs is not more reformers, but fewer men who need to be reformed.

Carter Harrison has again been elected mayor of Chicago. This is not luck; it is a habit.

Still, when you come to think about it, what else could have been expected?

The Indians "carried" the city, we are told. Yes; ran away with it.

THE IMPERIAL OLLENDORF.

From the London Outlook.

"His majesty, the German Emperor and King of Prussia, has been pleased to command that those who send in reports should endeavor to write in a concise and clear style. His majesty desires that in particular long-winded sentences, interpolated clauses, and verbs at the end of the sentence, should be avoided."

1. Have you the beautiful by the black smith much beloved daughter of the baker seen?

Correction: Have you seen the daughter of the baker?

Note—Bakers' daughters are not beautiful in Germany; this adjective is applied only to noble and royal persons. Blacksmiths must not love bakers' daughters; they may only love me, the army, the navy, and in spare moments the Bible.

2. Are you ever in Great Britain been? Yes, I am once there been for my brother to visit.

Correction: Are you ever in England been? Yes, one time.

Note—Great Britain is a disused name; the country is no longer great, if ever it was. It is now decadent. No German should a brother in England have, or, if he have, should he not him visit.

3. Can you to me at the present in the United States owing to the action of Germany much noise making Monroeish doctrine explain?

Note—This is an example of German composition, which it is the imperial will should be reformed. The verb must be early expressed, and not, on being conceived mentally, on a nail hung behind the door, as it were, and taken down when everything else said been is. But the Monroe doctrine exists not. The Monroe pretension will shortly abolished be.

4. Have you the British fleet seen? No, but I have the German fleet seen.

Note—A great opportunity here lost is. To name the German fleet should inflate the heart of every German, and he should say: But I have the German fleet seen quelling the proud waves on every ocean, where its future lies.

5. Have we fresh meat for dinner today? No, but we have cheap American beef in tin.

Note—Such sentences should be suppressed. They are a reflection upon the new German tariff. No German should express statements which are liable to be falsified by a change in duty.

POST-DISPATCH FASHIONS

Pale Gray Voile Street Gown

The above illustration is of a charming pale gray voile street gown, made over yellow taffeta.

The foundation skirt is five gored, finished with a deep plaiting, and the drop skirt is formed of seven large box plaits. The bottom of the skirt is trimmed with five wide tucks, each tuck being headed by a three-quarter of an inch wide band of gray silk faggotting, through which the yellow foundation shows.

The bodice is extremely full and blouses over the girdle belt of burnt yellow panne velvet.

The pointed collar, yoke and bands over the shoulders are made of Oriental embroidery, edges with narrow cream colored velvet embroidered with yellow French knots. Between the collar and pointed yoke is an insertion of gray faggotting and burnt yellow silk tassels finish the bands over the shoulders.

The loose sleeves reach only a short way below the elbow and are bordered with a band of embroidery and silk tassels.

The undersleeves are formed of alternate bands of Oriental embroidery and faggotting.

The wide brimmed flat hat, which is one of the most popular of the spring shapes, is made of gray satin straw, faced with white straw and trimmed with shaded yellow roses.

ON ST. LOUIS FLATS

I sometimes wonder if St. Louisans realize what they are putting up with when they accept without a murmur the so-called modern flats that have been thrust upon them of recent years.

Of course, I am speaking of the low-priced flats, those ranging from $20 to $30 a month. Those from $50 upward may possibly be really modern. Not being a millionaire, I have had no opportunity of living in one. I sincerely hope that those mortals fortunate enough to be able to afford them, insist upon getting a little something for their money. Their poorer brethren are obliged to put up with what they can get, and don't even dare to make much of a protest, because there are hundreds of families waiting to snap up anything that goes by the name of flat. The too vigorous kicker is simply told, without mercy, that if he doesn't like what he has he can go elsewhere. The worst of it is that all the elsewheres are no better than where you are. You might just as well make up your mind to it in the beginning and save yourself and your furniture the wear and tear of moving.

Some people never seem to learn this important fact. We did not at first. We had just come from Chicago, and from charming little apartments fitted up with all sorts of conveniences that the St. Louis flats never even heard of, for which we paid the sum of $25 a month. We had heard that rents were higher in St. Louis and were prepared to pay a few dollars more for what we wanted, but when we found what we did not get for our money we were almost inclined to give up the ghost on the spot. No shades, no screens, no gas fixtures, no hardwood floors. The floors all pine, with generous cracks thrown in, in which to collect St. Louis soil. The cellars were damp, often not cemented at all. They are left with the natural clay bottom, and sometimes that clay is so wet that it sticks to one's shoes in crossing the floor.

And furnaces! There are none in many flat houses. We afterward found out that many St. Louis people were unaccustomed to furnaces, and did not use them if they had them. They were too much trouble. The worst feature of all is the absence of closets. As for a pantry, it is simply unheard of. I mentioned our pantry one evening to a friend. She started from her chair. She gasped in amazement, "Pantry! Why, we haven't any pantry."

"Oh, well," I answered. "I spoke from force of habit, I suppose. Of course I mean little hole in the wall."

I remember well that bright sunshiny day when we joyously started out for the first time in St. Louis, flat hunting. The air was balmy and springlike. There were oceans of blue overhead, and seas of mud under our feet. Nobody seemed to pretend to keep walk or crossing clean. We soon presented a dilapidated appearance, but as every one else looked the same way it did not matter much, when one got used to it. Just at first it does rather hurt one's pride to be obliged to cart around a ton of real estate at every step, whether one wants to or not. Real estate is a nice thing to have in its proper place, but one prefers to have it stationary.

With the keys to some highly eulogized apartments we went gayly on our way. Most of these apartments were already rented, we found when we returned our open sesames. It made no difference. We, with our Chicago ideas of what a flat should be, wouldn't have had them at any price. People who belonged in St. Louis or had lived there a longer time than we had, were not so particular. They were glad of anything so good. We, alas! had to be shown that all St. Louis flats are alike, in their deficiencies. We might have saved ourselves useless tramps and dollars in carfare.

One of them wasn't so bad. It was fairly new, and comparatively clean. It had but two holes, in lieu of closets, but we had almost decided on it, in despair of finding better, when we discovered that the only possible way into the dining room was through a bedroom, unless one preferred to go around to the back door, and come in through the kitchen. We thought that wouldn't be a very hospitable way to treat one's company. One has to have company once in a while. It is not to be avoided. As for escorting one's friends through one's bedroom, it is not to be thought of, unless they are relations, and even then it is rather intimate. Builders, however, in St. Louis seem to like this plan. All the new flats are being arranged in this way. We know it for a fact, for we decided finally that it would have to be a new one, or none, for us, and we inspected a great many in course of construction. We at last arranged for the least objectionable, and are installed. We can't say that we are comfortable. Living in one's trunk is always disagreeable; to be obliged to do so constantly is trying, to say the least. Fortunately we have no china to speak of. If we had, we should be obliged to follow the example of the aforementioned friend, who also came from Chicago. She stacks her dishes up on the mantelpieces and dressers. She also has her icebox full. She keeps the icebox, by the way, in the dining room. She says there is no other place for it except down cellar, or out of doors, and both those places are too public for an icebox. None of the doors in our flat will stay shut, unless they are locked. Even then we don't feel very secure, for the cracks under the outside ones let in all sorts of wind and weather. When it snows it snows right into the hall. When one of those delightful hurricanes comes on, that St. Louis is subject to, then there are lively times. Speaking of those violent wind and rainstorms makes me think of one, in which all the outside blinds, on the south side of the house, came banging to, breaking into flinders the glass in the south windows. It took from 8 o'clock in the morning until 5 at night to get the damage repaired, for St. Louisans move slow. All the time a fierce wind was beating into the house. The man who mended up things was asked:

"Why do you have outside blinds in a country where such fierce winds are prevalent?"

"Oh, they always build houses that way in St. Louis," he said. "It's because of our terrific hailstorms."

"Oh, I said, sympathetically, when did you have your last hailstorm?"

"About ten years ago," he answered, scratching his head in an effort to remember.

"Well, I said, I should think, at least, if they must have outside blinds that they would place fastenings on them that would hold something. Those will not hold the blinds, whether open or shut, unless tied besides with a rope."

"Well, he said, I don't know. That is the way they always build these houses. We have to put in cartloads of glass after every high wind."

He expressed the whole thing. It is the way they are accustomed to do things in St. Louis, and it needs an earthquake to stir the average St. Louisan from his beaten track.

I must say I am rather sorry for our landlord. We have caused him much suffering, I know. On the whole, he is such a nice landlord that it is really too bad to blame him for conditions that are precisely like what everyone else has. In fact, he has done more than most would for us. He has furnished us with screens and gas fixtures. We try to be correspondingly grateful. We were trying to persuade him to connect the boiler with the furnace one day when he finally burst forth:

"Oh, you kickers! I would rather rent to anybody than to Chicago people. You want the earth."

"Of course you would, I responded sweetly. St. Louis people don't know enough to kick. They have never lived in decently appointed flats, and they do not know what they ought to have. We have come from a progressive city. We had no idea that St. Louis was still so much of a village and so far behind the times. It is quite the same with houses of moderate price. You people build them to sell, and they are not fit to live in, the year round."

Why, oh, why, does not some stirring Chicago man come to St. Louis and build flats as they should be built? One can forgive pine floors, if hardwood is too expensive. But closets! We must have closets, and a pantry.

Investors Waiting.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

When the Ryan turf business was taken in hand for settlement by the United States Court Judge Adams stated that investors would get 25 cents on the dollar, that in case there were not sufficient funds in bank to pay 25 cents the Ryan company would be compelled to make good to that extent. Now we hear of 15 per cent. Why does not the court compel the Ryan company to make good, when it is well known to everybody that this Ryan has about $400,000 of money lured from the people by false promises? Ninety-five per cent of the investors knew nothing of the modus operandi of this scheme, but were of the impression that this money could be made as the Ryan company claimed it could be. Besides, it was Ryan & Co.'s proposition in circulars to its subscribers to pay this 25 per cent, and it was with this understanding that they surrendered their certificates to the United States marshal.

Servant Girls' Union.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

I would like to know if a union of servant girls could not be organized, the same as the other working classes. The servant girls' hours are too long, and they can't call any time their own. Hoping to hear from others on the subject.

Publicity Does Good.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

Your paper of Friday evening, April 31, contained an account of the destitute condition of a family by the name of Rosseau, 1353 Elliot avenue. I visited the family and found them to be worthy of all the aid one could give them, and I most sincerely thank your paper for appealing to our good people for them. I hope you and your paper will prosper. It is a paper that does great good. E. R. LONG.

Saturday Half Holiday.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

As your paper has been the means of accomplishing some good results for the citizens of St. Louis, would like to have you take up the question of early closing on Saturdays and see if it cannot be made general, for the benefit of all those who have not heretofore enjoyed the privilege of Saturday early closing.

While perhaps the majority of St. Louis representative houses do close at noon on Saturdays, we regret to say there are a few who do not do so, thus preventing their employes from ever enjoying the benefit and pleasure derived from a half-holiday. There is no firm or house in St. Louis but what can get through all important and necessary business by noon on Saturdays, and the writer only expresses the wishes of thousands of our good citizens in saying we hope the coming summer will mark a new era in the history of St. Louis in the way of early closing, and that neither employe nor employer of any business house in the city of St. Louis will be seen wending their weary homeward way as late as 5 or 6 o'clock Saturday evenings. HUMANITY.

St. Louis.

Not Enough Houses.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

A "Rampant Renter" takes a most unreasonable view of the present rent situation.

The fact is that our great prosperity has caused universal congestion of money, cars for freightage, steel for railway and structural purposes, facilities for transportation, and buildings for manufactures, business and residence purposes.

Enormous demands have caused this.

Already the "evictions" in New York greatly exceed those in Ireland, owing to increased rents.

The cry there is for more office room; while the building of apartment houses and flats to supply requirements is unprecedented. In Pittsburg, leases run from May 1 and this year advances from 15 to 50 per cent are demanded and paid.

At St. Charles it is nearly impossible to procure houses; while at East St. Louis 500 dwellings, if built now, would be snapped up before completion.

St. Louis has not yet commenced to feel the effects of the World's Fair, and I question if one out of ten appreciate its magnitude, and how it will revolutionize matters here.

Why does not our friend purchase a house on monthly payments and pose as his own grasping landlord? C. W. B.

Leave of Absence for Sailors.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

It was very clever of Martha Charlton to suggest that the sailor boys of Missouri should attend the World's Fair dedication. She has a brother aboard the Wisconsin, and from experience I know how she longs to see him homeward bound. I myself am in favor of having the Missouri boys home, but know it is impossible, owing to the regulations of the navy.

Regulations on leave in the navy:

1. The senior officer present, whether he be in command afloat or on shore, is authorized to grant leave of absence not exceeding seven days to the officers and enlisted men serving afloat except to those serving in receiving and other station ships, during the temporary absence of exceeding twenty-four hours of the senior officer present. This authority continues in the officer who represents him and performs his duties.

2. The captain of a ship, with the permission of the senior officer present, may in any port in which pratique has been obtained grant leave of absence not exceeding twenty-four hours to the officer of his ship and forty-eight hours to the enlisted men.

3. Leave to go beyond the immediate vicinity of the station or port shall not be granted to any person attached to a ship under sailing orders.

4. Leave of absence or liberty shall not be granted to enlisted men by any other than the commanding officer of the ship.

5. Leave shall not be granted to enlisted men who are in debt to the government unless the full amount of such indebtedness be deposited with the pay officer.

6. No commanding officer of a ship squadron or naval station shall grant permission to any person under his command to leave his station, or to return from abroad to the United States, except upon the recommendation of a board of medical survey.

THE OLD JOKES' HOME

Every day we receive letters from far-off Clayton and East St. Louis asking us to publish a likeness of that eminent scientist and philanthropist, Prof. U. Doem Goode, the leading spirit of the Old Jokes' Home and one of the founders of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Humor.

In compliance with these many requests we publish this picture today that it may be treasured and preserved for future generations. Prof. Goode is so "generously good" that even to mention his characteristics as a gentleman, scientist and scholar would be a work of supererogation.

He is it who superintends the care of the ancient, debilitated, halt, lame and blind old gags that are brought in every hour of the day by the busy blue ambulance and Joe Miller, the chestnut horse. He it is who sees that they are given proper restoratives and placed on the road to recovery, or, in case of their final demise, that they are given decent burial, befitting the hoary pioneers who have made the world of laughter what it is.

An annex to cost $50,000 is already being built to the Old Jokes' Home. Little idea did I have when this noble institution was founded, so brief a time ago, that in so brief a space so great an expenditure for larger quarters would be demanded. But whatever the expense may be, let it come. The S. P. C. H. is determined that no joke shall go begging—that no good old gag, which has done valiant service for humanity, shall go shivering in the streets. Every last one of them must and shall be housed in the Old Jokes' Home.

Members of the S. P. C. H., do your duty! Organize yourselves and search in every nook and corner for the ancient jokes that are moaning to be rescued! Gather them in and turn in a call for the busy blue ambulance, and rest assured that Joe Miller, the chestnut horse, will hasten to the scene with all speed.

Here are a few of the old-timers brought in by the busy blue ambulance for the rest cure since our last report:

When is a door not a door?
When it is a jar.
Why is a bald head like the North Pole?
Because it is a great white bear place.
Why is a bald head like heaven?
Because there is no parting there.
Why is love like a steamboat?
Because it is an internal transport.
When is love a deformity?
When it is all on one side.
Why is a person forewarned a monstrosity?
Because he is forearmed.
Why is 3 o'clock in the morning only a quarter past 12?
Because the figure 3 on the face of the clock is a quarter past 12.
Why is 3 o'clock in the morning only a quarter of 12?
Because three is a quarter of 12.
Why is a silver dollar like a rooster on a fence?
Because the head is on one side and tail on the other.
Which is the most valuable, the bride or the groom?
The groom, because the bride is given away but the groom is often sold.
Why could not Cain sit down?
Because he was not Abel.
What did the sun say to the snow?
Come off the roof.
What did the rain say to the dust?
I am onto you and your name is mud.
When is a woman like a vehicle in common use?
When she is a little sulky.
Why is a crying baby in church like a good resolution?
Because it should be carried out.
How can you turn a dog into a piece of hardware?
Kick him and he will make a bolt for a door.
Why did the chemist refuse to marry the young lady?
Because her name was Ann Elisa.
What did Io die of?
Iodide of potassium.
Why is the moon the greatest drunkard known?
Because as soon as he has four quarters he gets full.
What colors would you use to paint a storm at sea?
The winds blue and the waves rose.
What two colors cannot be seen?
Blindman's buff and invisible green.

Baseball and the Bible.

BROWNS AT LAST FIND THE BALL

Strike a Batting Gait in Practice — Play High School Team Thursday.

Exercise afforded by the exhibition games are putting the Browns in good condition and the practice is beginning to develop hitting powers in some of the players who have not been lively with the stick all spring.

Thursday afternoon at Sportsman's Park the fast St. Louis High School team, under direction of Frank Pears, will give the Browns another workout and probably a very good one. Pears has trained the boys well, and they should be able to put up a better fielding game than did the East St. Louis team Wednesday.

There is a possibility that the Smith Academy team may play either the Browns or Cardinals Friday. Sudhoff or Reidy will work for the Browns Thursday afternoon. Ricker and Miltenberger, the crack High School battery will be in the points Thursday.

If the showing of the Browns and Cardinals against the East St. Louis Trolley League team is any indication of the relative abilities of the Brown and Cardinal teams, then the McAleerites should be odds-on favorites in the remaining game of the series.

At last the Browns are finding the ball. Wednesday at Sportsman's Park they simply slaughtered the pitching of Manager John Terry of the East Siders. The other day, over in East St. Louis, the Cardinals failed to find Mr. Terry to any great extent.

"It's the best practice we've had since we left the South," declared Bobby Wallace after the game. And the others echoed his opinion.

When the Cardinals played the East Siders the latter team was on home ground and the field was very slow. It was a cold day and a high wind kept many hits from going safe.

Browns Hit Terry's Curves.

Wednesday afternoon the sun was bright and warm, and the hitters certainly did find the ball. Terry eased up before the end of the first inning, for out of the 11 Browns, who faced him, seven scored. After that Terry was very tame.

The Browns hit and ran the bases until they were tired, but it was very good practice. The East Side infield was lucky to stop some of the drives. In the first inning, with a man on third and Anderson at bat, the infield moved up. Anderson shot one through Shortstop Hofman so quickly that he didn't have time to make any kind of a "stab" for the ball.

And so it went all afternoon. Hemphill drove a couple against the right field fence, and Jack Powell who replaced Donahue in the box, slammed one aginst the left field bleachers. Anderson was lining them out to every corner of the field, and Burkett's savage thrusts went safe several times. In all, 18 clean hits were registered.

Frank Donahue occupied the rubber for five innings and bobbed up with a new wrinkle in the shape of a slow "slow" ball. He had the East Siders swinging at [illegible] before the ball was half way to the [illegible] he fed them a slow one, then [illegible], a high fast one and a slow [illegible] curves. Joe Sugden handled [illegible]

[illegible] olley Leaguer scored on Donahue [illegible] either. Tom Donahue caught [illegible] speedy pitching with ease, and [illegible] a few hits. Powell did not let [illegible] to the limit, of course, but he [illegible] in danger of being scored upon.

Behind both pitchers the Browns fielded cleanly, Wallace, Padden and McCormick accepting every chance, and there were quite a few. After the game McAleer kept his infield at work for 20 minutes of the hardest kind of practice.

Burkett stood over on the grass and hit until he was tired, while Hemphill ran around the park five or six times as a flesh reducer. The Brownie right fielder does not lose weight easily, but this spring he expects to be rid of all the surplus before the season begins.

Billy Reidy again officiated as umpire, and, though he seemed to favor the losers, he did not lose his position. Jack Sheridan sat over in the grandstand, and after Reidy's exhibition, remarked:

"And still some people say that we are getting the money easy. Wonder how long Reidy would last in the League?"

The score:

Innings—	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	T.	H.	E.
St. Louis	7	1	1	1	1	0	4	3	x—	18	8	0
East St. Louis	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0—	0	5	5

Batteries—F. Donahue, Powell, Sugden and T. Donahue; Terry and Anderson. Umpire—Reidy.

BASEBALL NOTES.

The whereabouts of Pitcher John Dunleavy is a mystery, and, in all probability, he will not report to the Cardinal Club. Dunleavy is a young fellow without major league experience and he took a long chance when he worked out of the training trip just to coach a college team. Donovan has so many good twirlers now that if Dunleavy does show up he will have to deliver the goods immediately or be tincanned.

The Cardinals returned Thursday morning from Terre Haute, and will practice Thursday and Friday at League Park. It is probable that both the remaining Brown-Cardinal games will be played at the National League field.

Donahue and Powell are McAleer's selections for Saturday and Sunday unless the weather turns cold. Brown and Rhoades or Sanders probably will work for Donovan.

Detailed reports of the first game between the Quakers and Athletics at Philadelphia show that Roy Brashear, the former Cardinal, registered the hit that brought the first across the plate for the Quakers in the tenth inning.

BEATING IS DUE THANE TODAY

Winner of Eleven Straight Starts Up Against a Strong Field.

BY R. D. WALSH.

SELECTIONS.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 9.

First race—Alfred C., Nearest, Drummond.

Second race—Schorr entry, Flo Bob, Dick Bernard.

Third race—Elsie L., Thane, Autumn Leaves.

Fourth race—Rankin, Floyd K., Handspinner.

Fifth race—Rococo, Postmaster Wright, Alfio.

Sixth race—Barrack, Cogswell, Kingstelle.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 9.—Small fields and good classes are the features of the six race cards offered at Montgomery Park today.

The second, third and fourth events are sparsely filled, but the class of the contenders promises close contests.

The feature events of the card is the third, in which seven thoroughbreds of tried merit will face the starter. This event is at seven furlongs and the winner of 11 straight starts this year, Thane is among those scheduled to start.

Harry New, a much exploited colt; Wax Taper, Elsie L. and Autumn Leaves will tie up with Thane.

Elsie L. looks best is this race and should beat out the touted Thane. Autumn Leaves, with only 99 pounds up, should nose in front of Harry New for show money.

Dick Bernard, much heralded, has no clutch on the purse in the second event. Schorr's pair figure to beat out the Smather's colt and Flo Bob looks good enough to take second.

The opening event at seven and one-half furlongs looks like a two-horse race, with Alfred C. and Nearest fighting to the wire, Drummond may show.

In the fourth, a four-horse affair at a mile and one-sixteenth, should finish Rankin, Floyd K., Handspinner.

The fifth is the only big field of the day, and the race is problematical. Rococo, Postmaster Wright and Alfio should be in the money.

Barrack looks best in the sixth, and should win from Cogswell and Kingstelle.

HAMMERED THREE PITCHERS

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., April 9.—There was a time when the Terre Haute club was occasionally able to beat the Cardinals in exhibition games, but now that the pitchers who made those victories possible have been captured by the St. Louis team, the "Huts" have little show.

Boxman "Sunny Jim" Hackett, once the left fielder and star pitcher of the locals, was backed by lots of hard hitting yesterday and the Cardinals won as they pleased by the one-sided score of 15 to 3.

Two of the six hits off Hackett were three-sack drives and saved the "Huts" from a probable shut out. Manager Walters used three pitchers in a vain attempt to break up the Cardinals' batting matinee, but each one was worse than his predecessor.

Willie Popp, a St. Louisan who joined the Cardinals last season but failed to make good, was touched for five runs in the first three innings. "Rube" Vickers pitched the next three innings.

Vickers is the eccentric slabman who was tried out by Cincinnati last fall and turned over to the Brooklyn club this spring. The "Rube" was a bit too uncouth even for Ned Hanlon, who chased him from the Superba camp last week. He turned up in Terre Haute the other day and probably will play the remainder of the season here.

Vickers was as wild as a March hare. He had speed, but what the Cardinals did to that was enough. Four of the hits made off him counted for extra bases, and in his last inning he was lambasted for four hits. Crangle finished the game for Terre Haute. He had poor control and six runs were charged against him.

The Cardinals gave the ball a fearful belting. Smoot, Barclay, Donovan, Nichols and Hackett hit out three safe ones apiece. Brain worked in his usual three-bagger. The score:

ROBISONS WIN $175,000 SUIT

Local National League Club Owners Get Judgment Against Cleveland Street Railway Company.

The nature of the business which kept President Frank de Hass Robison in Cleveland this spring when he would have preferred to be in St. Louis to see the Brown-Cardinal series is explained by an item in a Cleveland paper of recent date.

Only a few days ago decisions were rendered in a number of suits brought by the Robisons against the Little Consolidated Railway Co. of Cleveland.

Judgment was rendered in favor of the Robisons for claims amounting to $175,000.

The Robisons formerly owned considerable stock in a Cleveland line which was consolidated with others. They claimed that they did not get their proper amount of stock in the new company.

A number of suits were started which have been pending in the courts for years. Judge Phillips, who rendered the decisions, suggested a method of computation on the stock and attorneys are now at work figuring out the exact sum due to the Robisons. The amount is about $175,000.

Only recently in the St. Louis courts the St. Louis National League club received judgment for about $20,000 on the insurance cases which arose after the grandstand fire in May, 1901.

Notes of the Greyhounds.

An all-age stake, at $3 entry fee, will be the feature of the Pastime Coursing Club card at Delmar Park next Sunday. Several owners of promising puppies have already sent in their entries and a good stake is assured.

The Orthwein kennel will be well represented. Several of the Orthwein dogs have been thoroughly worked out since their campaign in Chicago.

Lacy Crawford's greyhound, Lord Brazen, is winning laurels on the Pacific coast, having won a consolation stake at Frisco last week in a high class field.

Alex Konta is importing a brace of greyhounds from Newmarket, England, and they will be run at Delmar if the weather is not too warm.

J. J. Lavin probably will rest his imported greyhound, Haradene, divider of the last two stakes run at Delmar Park. He will have his two puppies, Lady Strathmore and Spotless Beauty, to represent his kennel in Sunday's event.

WORLD'S HONORS GO WITH POST-DISPATCH TROPHIES

Winners of Cocked-Hat Prizes In Local Race Entitled to Be Called Champions of All Three-Pin Game Experts.

Thursday's Bowling Schedule.

Druggists' League—Moffitt-Wests vs. Eli Lillys on Royal alleys; J. S. Merrills vs. Meyer Bros., Crescent alleys; Mound City Paints vs. Searle & Hereths, Acme alleys. Catholic League—Casinos vs. Mallinckrodts, on Compton alleys.

In two matches, which practically will determine the cocked hat championship of the world, the winners of the Post-Dispatch bowling trophies will be decided, within the month.

The two prizes offered for cocked hat bowlers at the start of the season to the team making the highest average for the year and the individaul rolling the highest single game in a league match, have been incidental to some of the greatest bowling in the history of the game.

More than this, before the prizes have been won, it is probable cocket hat bowlers will witness rolling that has seldom been seen on any alleys.

The contest for the team average trophy lies between the Crescent and Acme teams of the Central League.

These fives have battled through two series with but a few pins separating their totals.

At the present time, though more than 180 games have been rolled, the teams are but 75 pins apart, with two more matches to be played.

The Crescents hold the narrow margin of lead, but are at a disadvantage in having to roll their two remaining matches on the Royal and Crescent alleys, whereas the Acme team will roll one contest on the fast Acme boards.

In two matches the Acme team has an excellent opportunity to overtake and pass the leaders.

Whichever five wins may claim the world's cocked-hat championship, as St. Louis rollers are admitted to be far ahead of those in other cities.

The contest for the high game trophy will be unique, inasmuch as five men, all cracks, have made the "possible" in a match game. This tie will be rolled off immediately following the close of the second series.

The date, place and conditions will be named by the National Cocked-Hat Association, and at the conclusion of this match the prizes in both contests will be turned over to the winners.

It is suggested in connection with the roll off that a certain number of games be rolled by each man in the tie, the highest total to decide.

It remains with the National Association, however, to name the conditions.

Clymer and Boyle had no trouble in disposing of the Holweg brothers in Wednesday night's special cocked-hat, getting a 6-2 decision.

The first game went to the "Kids" by 14 pins, with totals 96 to 8[illegible]. The second also went the same way, 100 to [illegible]. In No. [illegible] brothers got going and made connec[illegible] [illegible] total of 1[illegible] to [illegible]. This proved [illegible] one night. No. [illegible]

O'Dannigan entry. They also won games Nos. 5 and 6 by 106 to 103 and 110 to 90.

The brothers got their second and last win in the next game, total 111 to 88. The last essay, 93 to 90, was the only close one of the match. With a chance to tie the score in the windup "Chappy" pushed his last ball through on a spare, ending the agony.

Clymer was long man, although he rolled the more scientifically. With 17-18 column he gathered a 46 average. Boyle, 10-23, 54⅗, was the best of the quartet. Brothers Andy and "Chappy" got 11-30—49 2-8 and 11-22—49 6-8, respectively.

After the match articles were drawn up for a return match to be rolled on Holweg's alleys next Wednesday, conditions to be the same as in Wednesday night's match, best 6 out of 10. In case of a tie score one extra game to decide.

Answers to Correspondents.

G. A. G., St. Louis.—Cather Kahoe of the Browns was the player who took three bases on a hit into the crowd in left field at League Park Sunday.

R. L. M.—Jesse Burkett's batting average last season was .306 for 137 games, according to the official figures. Fred Clarke of Pittsburg hit .321 in 114 games.

Arthur Kruger, outfielder of the Rockford team of the Three-Eye League, after reeciving advance money, has jumped his contract to go to the Oakland, Cal., club An effort was made to arrest Kruger when his intentions became known, but he was already on his way to the coast when the officers went after him.

A FRIEND'S ADVICE

Will Often Help You Greatly—Read What a St. Louis Citizen Says.

You may hesitate to listen to the advice of strangers, but the testimony of friends or residents of St. Louis is worth your most careful attention. It is an easy matter to investigate such proof as this. The evidence must be conclusive. Read the following:

Mr. Charles Kaufman, box-nailer at F. C. Riddle & Bros. Casket Co., living at 4238 Easton av., says: "For some unknown cause an attack of backache and urinary weakness annoyed me for four or five months. At first it was not very severe, but after awhile it bothered me continually, not only during the day, but at night. A friend knowing my condition procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at 'Wolff-Wilson's,' corner Sixth st. and Washington av. The treatment cured."

THE HAMMER COLUMN

Racing opens in St. Louis next Wednesday. It is the wise man's part to buy himself a meal ticket, a book of street car passes and pay for his room a month in advance. Having done this, he may safely go out to the track, "just to look around."

The man who follows the hounds must find it hard work to keep ahead of the races.

A wise man was wont to say that a safe deposit vault is a slow place in which to increase your capital, but it is much more certain than a race track, as regards keeping it. We doubt this. We know of no track that failed to keep all it could lay hands on.

There are some people who contend that betting on a "lobster" is after all a sort of shell game.

In response to requests the following definitions of slang baseball terms are printed:

Slab—Formerly a place where deceased persons are laid out, now used to denote the spot occupied by baseball pitchers during a game. In a few instances these meanings are synonymous.

Bobble—That which was wont to happen when a hot liner was batted Germany Hartman's way.

Bingle—Something that seldom comes when needed.

Four-bagger—Jack Ryan's hopeless ambition.

Swat—That which incautious umpires are apt to get after bad decisions.

Fan out—Frank Donohue can best describe this operation.

Rubber—The place where the batter rest his trusty ash while he lubricates on his hands for luck.

The plate—The place where hot things are served up. Very hard for the chef to find when the games gets exciting.

Hit the dirt—An operation that Jack Powell hates to attempt.

Coach—A privileged character with a varied and uncouth vocabulary whose remarks to the enemy are better imagined than related.

Pilfering a sack—The only way you can steal without insulting the law.

SPORT BRIEFS

The Considines think that Sam Harris is only bluffing when he offers to put up $10,000 on McGovern against Corbett. They will post that amount and ask Harris to cover it if another fight can be arranged.

The trial spins of the Shamrock III., Sir Thomas Lipton's new challenger, are very satisfactory to the English yachtman. The new boat is much faster than the Shamrock I.

Pool Champion Grant Eby once more outclassed Hueston in the fourth night's play of their 500-point match at the Empire, Wednesday night. Eby is now in the lead by a score of 401 to 325.

The Chicago White Sox, who open the American league season in St. Louis, are not playing tip top ball and McAleer expects to get away with the opening series.

The Carlisle Indians will play football in the West this year. Northwestern has already closed a date with the Redskins.

SSS THE BEST TONIC

In S. S. S. Nature has provided a tonic suited to every requirement of the system when in a debilitated, run down condition. It contains no strong minerals or drugs, but is a pleasant vegetable preparation. You can find no better remedy for toning up the nerves and bringing refreshing, restful sleep when sick and worn out with work or worry.

S. S. S. improves the appetite and digestion, and its good effects are seen almost from the first dose. It acts promptly in cases of chronic dyspepsia, indigestion and all stomach troubles, and does away with the uncomfortable fullness, shortness of breath, drowsiness and dizziness that so often come after eating.

I have no hesitancy in recommending your S. S. S. as the best Spring tonic on the market. I have used many other medicines, but find S. S. S. to be undoubtedly the only tonic that will build up the system. I shall take pleasure in telling all whom I think in need of a good blood tonic of your medicine.

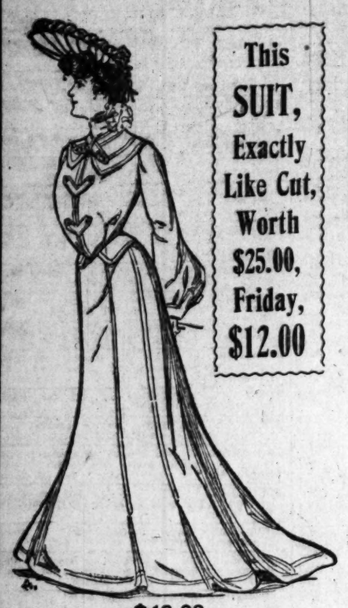

Yours truly, LEWIS S. FIEBER, Care Stoll, Hamilton & Co. Lexington, Ky.

S. S. S. is not only the best tonic but possesses alterative or purifying properties, and if there is any taint, humor or poison in the blood it searches it out, and removes it. Many times a low state of health is due to a bad condition of the blood and can only be remedied by a blood purifier and tonic combined, or such a remedy as S. S. S.

If you suffer from debility, weakness, insomnia, nervousness, loss of appetite, bad digestion, or any of the miserable symptoms [illegible] soon put your blood [illegible] restore the he[illegible]

MIDWEEK GOSSIP OF THE THEATERS

Holy week and warm weather have had quite an appreciable effect upon the theaters this week, but in spite of these two drawbacks Ethel Barrymore at the Olympic has been doing a better business this season than on her first visit as a star, and will continue to do so with each recurring season, for, as has been said before, Miss Barrymore has come to stay.

Tim Murphy has suffered most from the holy week quietness, but all the theaters have been more or less affected.

Lulu Glaser, the only light opera prima donna on the stage today who has a company named for her, will be seen for the first time in this city in her great success of the last two seasons, "Dolly Varden," at the Century Theater Monday night and through the week. It is said that "Dolly Varden" is the most satisfactory example of light opera on the stage today, and that there is not a discordant note in the perfect harmony of music and color.

Scientists for years have puzzled over the cause of the many fires which originate, no one knows how, in the many culm piles throughout the coal regions. Culm is the fine dirt which remains after the coal has been run through the breaker and is no use for fuel, yet in the open air it burns as easily as wood. Everything possible has been used to extinguish these fires, but they continue to burn. At night they are wierdly picturesque. A burning culm pile is reproduced in the drama, "Pennsylvania," which is to come to Havlin's with the matinee of the coming Sunday.

On May 11 St. Louis will have a notable concert at Grand Music Hall. Mme. Lillian Nordica and Edouard de Reszke will sing and John Duss, the noted bandleader, who has attained recent fame and following in the East, will lead the orchestra. The concert will be particularly advantageous to these great artists because on the concert stage rather than in operatic work they can sing their favorite songs in their own way to the lectation of their hearers.

Mary Mannering in "The Stubbornness of Geraldine," will be the attraction at the Olympic theater next week, beginning Monday night. It is said to be the best thing Clyde Fitch ever wrote.

One week from Saturday, the Luella Forepaugh-Fish Wild West Shows will begin its exhibitions at Handlan Park with a vast array of features, representing life on the frontier and elsewhere. Indians, cowboys, U. S. cavalrymen, artillerymen, Mexicans, vaqueros, Cossacks, lariat-throwers, Arabs, expert marksmen and daredevil riders will be included in the long and diversified program.

This week's bill at Hashagen's Auditorium is the best since the opening of this South Side amusement resort. Roys and Roberts will head the program next week with a new pictorial act. Also will be seen Hand and Lottie Whitcomb, in rural comedy; Willis and Larkin, blackface humorists; the two Carrays, soubrette and clown, and many other excellent features.

Al W. Martin's production of T. S. Arthur's temperance play, "Ten Nights in a Barroom," is drawing well at the Imperial Theater. Next week a new sensational melodrama, entitled "A Ruined Life," will be presented for the first time here, with Elsie Crescy and an efficient supporting company.

That sparkling bit of mirth, music, dancing and gymnastics, known as "Eight Bells," will be presented at the Grand Opera House for one week, commencing Sunday matinee. In "Eight Bells," as everybody knows, or should know by this time, the Brothers Byrne have an excellent medium for the display of their peculiar talents.

An Easter performance will be given by the pupils of Prof. Richards Sunday evening at his academy, 1302 Olive street, at which the following youngsters will take part: Stella Schwartz, Hazel Smith, Emma Furth, the Rader children, Harry Frithle, Leora Spellmeyer, Clara French, Esther Jenkins and Sophia Bonnison. The entertainment will be about the last of the season.

Coming to the Columbia next week: Cole and Johnson, Techow's great cats, Edwin Latell, Rae and Brosche, Stuart Barnes, Edgar Foreman trio, Fred El Zobedie, Zelma Rawlston, Schuyler sisters, Al Lawrence, Hank and Lottie Whitcomb, Mr. and Mrs. Nello and the kinodrome.

Patrons of the Zoo will have to make hay while the sun shines, for the Zoo is scheduled to remain only four weeks longer, as it has been impossible to renew their lease with the transit company, whose property they have been using, and no other place can be found in town which will accommodate this mammoth exhibition, so it will have to stay out on the road until its own new home is built, which is now in the hands of the architects and which is expected to be complete about the first of October.

The City Club is the attraction at the Standard next week.

Excuse me, Craymer, I must go to Boehmer for my Easter shoes.

DIVORCE TO PHELAN'S WIFE.

Former Manager of St. Louis Baseball Club Alleged to Have Deserted Her.

Mrs. Maud Phelan was granted a divorce from Louis A. Phelan by Judge Taylor Thursday morning with the restoration of her maiden name, Maud Wells.

"Lou" Phelan is well-known in St. Louis sporting circles. He was at one time manager of the St. Louis Baseball Club, during the latter years of Chris Von der Ahe's regime.

His wife says he is now running a pool-room in Butte, Mont. The decree was granted on the ground of desertion. She testified that Phelan left her May 10, 1899, ostensibly to go to Montana "for his health," but never returned.

Mrs. Phelan's mother testified that she was compelled to support her daughter during a great portion of her wedded life, and that for a part of the time she supported Phelan, too.

He is a son of the late Dr. Richard A Phelan of St. Louis.

Courage of His Convictions.

From the Brooklyn Eagle.

"I like a man who has the courage of his convictions," said the revivalist.

"Say, boss," Dan the Kid put in, "you'd be dead stuck on Bill Swipes. He's been out for seven times an' never leaked a whimper."

$1.00——One Dollar Humour Cure——$1.00

Cuticura

SOAP, OINTMENT AND PILLS

Complete External and Internal Treatment of Every Humour from Pimples to Scrofula, from Infancy to Age, Price One Dollar.

Complete local and constitutional treatment for every humour of the skin, scalp and blood, with loss of hair, may now be had for one dollar. Bathe with hot water and Cuticura Soap to cleanse the surface of crusts and scales, and soften the thickened cuticle. Dry, without hard rubbing, and apply Cuticura Ointment freely, to allay itching, irritation and inflammation, and soothe and heal, and lastly, take the Cuticura Resolvent, to cool and cleanse the blood. This treatment affords instant relief, permits rest and sleep in the severest forms of Eczema, and other itching, burning and scaly humours, and points to a speedy, permanent and economical cure of torturing, disfiguring humours, from pimples to scrofula, from infancy to age, when all other remedies and the best physicians fail.

The agonizing itching and burning of the skin, as in eczema; the frightful scaling, as in psoriasis; the loss of hair and crusting of the scalp, as in scalled head; the facial disfigurement, as in pimples and ringworm; the awful suffering of infants, and anxiety of worn-out parents, as in milk crust, tetter and salt rheum,—all demand a remedy of almost superhuman virtues to successfully cope with them. That Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Resolvent are such stands proven beyond all doubt. No statement is made regarding them that is not justified by the strongest evidence. The purity and sweetness, the power to afford immediate relief, the certainty of speedy and permanent cure, the absolute safety and great economy have made them the standard skin cures of the civilized world.

Cuticura Remedies are sold throughout the world. Cuticura Resolvent, Pills (in form of Chocolate Coated Pills), 25c. per vial of 60. Ointment, 50c. Soap, 25c. Depots: London, 27 Charterhouse Sq.; Paris, 5 Rue de la Paix; Boston, 137 Columbus Ave. Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Proprietors.

BOLTED DOOR SEPARATES HUSBAND FROM WIFE FOR FIFTEEN YEARS

Pair Lived Apart in Four Room Flat by Mutual Agreement.

Alexander McCabe, his wife and two children lived 15 years in a four-room flat at 1432 North Grand avenue, but they did not live together.

A bolted door in which the lock was never turned separated their apartments. McCabe occupied the rear room and Mrs. McCabe with her two children had the other three.

They entered into a written agreement Sept. 24, 1898, governing their relations in the house. Last August McCabe vacated his room and sued for divorce, complaining that his wife had not lived up to her contract. He said she had failed to care for his room as stipulated.

Mrs. McCabe fought the case and won it in Judge Fisher's division of the Circuit Court Wednesday. A divorce was not granted, the court dismissing the case. Mrs. McCabe testified that it was McCabe and not she, who had broken the agreement.

McCabe now conducts a grocery store and lives at Clara and Minerva avenues. He was formerly in business at Cass and Grand avenues and was the first president of the St. Louis Retail Grocer's Association.

Spiritualism was the chief cause of unpleasantness in the McCabe family. McCabe is a spiritualist and, according to his wife, consults mediums.

"He concealed the fact from me," said she. "And I never could get him to admit his belief, but I found the slate on which he wrote questions and the mediums wrote their answers."

McCabe says his wife laughed at his belief, which he calls his religion, and called him harsh names on account of it. Mrs. McCabe admits she told him she thought he, a business man, ought to have better sense.

Mr. and Mrs. McCabe were married 25 years ago. They have a daughter of 13 and a son of 16.

Their separation began 15 years ago, but the terms of it were not agreed to until four years ago.

They lived in the same house until last August, when Mrs. McCabe says her husband went away. She says further he had failed to support her according to the terms of their agreement.

McCabe had a private entrance to his room in the house. He never went into the apartments of his wife and children. They never entered his. He ate his meals at a restaurant and spent his days in his store next door to the flat where his family lived.

"I am getting old and I don't want to be divorced," said Mrs. McCabe, after the court had decided in her favor. "I prefer to get along quietly and live with my children. I am determined that Mr. McCabe shall support us as he agreed, however. Beyond that I do not care."

THE CONTRACT.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 2, 1898.

Alexander McCabe:

For the present or until the expiration of your lease your wife, Mary, is to occupy, rent free, with the children the flat with the exception of one room, which is to be set aside for you for sleeping quarters, and which she is to care for.

That while she is to occupy a part of the premises she is not to interfere in any way with you or your business, and you are not to interfere with her in any way.

That you are to provide the necessary coal for cooking and heat and gas, as heretofore. You are to pay her the coming Saturday evening, Oct. 1, 1898, and every Saturday evening thereafter $—— for the support and maintenance of herself and children. Any unusual expenses, such as arise from sickness or the like are to be paid by you, as the occasion demands. * * *

You are also to pay for the education of the daughter, Jessie. Yours truly, GEORGE W. LUBKE, JR., (Attorney).

Above is correctly stated.

Excuse me, Craymer, I must go to Boehmer for my Easter shoes.

POST-DISPATCH DAILY RECORD OF FINANCIAL AND MARKET DOINGS

ADVERSE DECISION BREAKS PRICES

Decision Against Northern Securities Company Causes Sharp Decline on Wall Street.

STRONG MARKET UNTIL AFTER NOON

Opening Was Strongest for Several Days—New Holding Company Will Probably Be Formed in London.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, April 9.—The opening this morning was strong and with considerable activity. There was a good gain in price all down the list, the average being half a point, though Southern Pacific made a jump of 1¼ over last night's close. London came stronger and higher, with a few buying orders in this market.

The fact that the banks have been gaining from the subtreasury gives hope of a favorable bank statement Saturday, though two days of holiday is liable to upset calculations.

The advance made in Colorado Fuel yesterday seems to be buying by shorts who fear that possibly the late decline has been too rapid.

Southern Pacific displayed considerable activity in the first half hour at the advance of 1¼. The advance was held during the early part of the session.

In the face of the approaching holidays the strength of the market is most satisfactory, and tends to show that the short element is unwilling to take the chance of going short over the period. Until very recently it was the bull element that feared an approaching holiday.

After the first spurt of activity there was a lull, but activity was soon resumed, though prices were inclined to sell off a fraction.

It is reported that J. P. Morgan & Co. are again in the market with orders to brokers supposed to represent them for the purpose of supporting the Morgan stocks, most particularly Steel common.

There was much general activity in both Mexican National and Mexican Central stocks, and for a time the main business was in these issues. Good-sized blocks came out and the price held firmly around 27 for Central and 19¾ for National. The March statement for the Central makes a very good showing, the month showing an increase of 19 per cent over the corresponding period last year.

Sugar was very active and received good support. There is a large short interest out in this stock and the buying appears to come from shorts who desire to cover. The price was up to 123¾ at the beginning of the second hour.

The Southern Pacific pool stocks will be distributed to the owners tomorrow and it is quite a question on the floor what effect this will have on the market when the pool influences is removed.

After the noon hour the market was firm and maintained fair activity. Southern Pacific went up to 58, from which there was but slight recession. Louisville & Nashville was lively and struck 118¾, afterwards losing a point.

Brooklyn Rapid Transit, on reported increase of earnings, amounting to over $100,000 a month, made fractional gains.

Money went to 53¾, afterwards falling to 5½.

When the decision in the Northern Securities case, adverse to the company, was announced, there was a sharp break all along the line, particularly affecting those roads most concerned in merger plans. Southern Pacific was off to 56, Rock Island to 42¾ and Missouri Pacific to 196½. Union Pacific was hammered and came out in good blocks to 89⅞.

According to the decision the policy of holding companies is contrary to public policy and the Securities company must return the stock it now holds.

From St. Paul comes a report that a new company will be formed in London to take on the holdings and continue the plan of the Northern Securities Co.

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, April 9.—Arbitrage buying, induced by the rising in Americans in London, helped prices upwards here at the opening. Southern Pacific advanced 1¼, Amalgamated 1⅛ and a number of other stocks a large fraction. The dealings were not large, and the market showed a tendency to become quiet after the opening orders were executed.

Some effort was made to extend the advance, the moderate offerings which met the rise encouraging more general buying for the long account. Pronounced strength in a few of the specialties and railroads, which have been recently heavily liquidated, aroused a more cheerful sentiment.

Sugar was bid for in large blocks and ran up 2¼ to 123¼. Yesterday's heavy buying of the Leather stocks was resumed with resultant large fractional gains, and the Pacifics and western stocks also reached a higher level. Liquidation in high-priced inactive stocks, such as Northwestern, Lackawanna and Consolidated Gas, ceased, and they were lifted 1@2 points. Other gains included 1¾ in Minneapolis, St. Paul & Sault Ste. Marie and Louisville, 1¼ in Rubber Goods and 1 each in St. Paul, Metropolitan Street Railway, C.,C.,C. & St. Louis preferred, Rock Island preferred, Texas & Pacific and National Railroad of Mexico stocks.

Large selling of Rock Island carried it and the preferred back a point and checked the advance elsewhere. Louisville reacted 1¼. The market rallied again to the best, carrying up Union Pacific, Missouri Pacific, Canadian Pacific, Illinois Central, St. Louis Southwestern preferred, B. & O., U. S. Steel preferred and some minor stocks 1 to 1¼. The market became dull at the advance.

Bonds were steady at noon.

SMALL SALES; FIRM TONE

Though Sales Were Light This Morning Prices Were Well Maintained.

DECIDED ACTIVITY IN BOND MARKET

Tractions Were Neglected and Bank Stocks Scored a Blank—Missouri Trust Makes Another Advance.

There was a decidedly better tone to the morning sessions on the local stock exchange today. Sales were light, but the character of the bidding was of a nature to encourage the brokers.

A demand for bonds was apparent, several issues that have been dead for some time being traded in. This was the case in Laclede Gas 5s, Broadway Cables and Missouri-Edison 5s. The Brewery bonds were a shade higher, selling at $95.

Missouri Trust was again advanced, the early sales being at $128.75, from which figure the price dropped to $128.50, with that amount bid for more. St. Louis-Union was firmer than yesterday, though none changed hands.

The Missouri-Edison common was unchanged, 100 shares selling at yesterday's quotation. Miscellaneous stocks were inactive, the only sale being a small block of Central Coal & Coke at $66.12½.

Scantic Mining made a new low record this morning, being offered at 20 cents, with but 5 cents bid.

GRAIN MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH

CHICAGO, April 9.—There was considerable excitement in the wheat pit at the start today and opening prices were strong, with May a shade to ¼@⅜c higher at 75¼c to 75½c. The strength was due largely to the anxiety of local shorts to get to cover, influenced by the higher cables and by reports of a good export demand for both May and July options. There was also renewed buying on a small scale by the prominent bull interest. In response to this demand, May advanced to 75¾@75⅞c, but realising sales caused a reaction to 75⅜@75½c. Receipts at Minneapolis and Duluth were 183 cars, which, with local receipts of 41 cars—none of contract grade—made a total of 224 cars, against 245 cars last week and 164 cars a year ago.

Corn opened firm in sympathy with wheat and on higher cables, May being unchanged to ⅛c higher at 43¼@43⅜c. Offerings were free, however, at the advance and the market soon became easier, May selling off to 43⅛c. Trading in general was dull, with no features. Local receipts were 175 cars, none of contract grade.

Oats were dull and featureless, with opening prices firm along with the strength in wheat. May opened unchanged to a shade higher at 33¼c to 33¼@33⅜c, but with little support the market quickly declined, May selling down to 32⅞c. Local receipts were 196 cars.

Provisions quiet and about steady and prices showed little change early in the day. May lard was unchanged to 2½c higher at $9.85 to $9.87½, with ribs 2½c lower at $9.67½.

May pork opened unchanged to 10c lower at $17.70 to $17.80.

CHICAGO, April 9.—Close—Wheat: May, 76¼@76⅜c; July, 71⅞@72c; Sept., 69¼c. Corn—April, 42½c; May, 42⅝@42¾c; July, 43⅛c; Sept., 43c. Oats—April, 32½@32⅝c; May, 32½@32⅝c; July, 29½c; Sept., 27⅝c. Pork—May, $17.65; July, $17.25; Sept., $17. Lard—May, $9.85; July, $9.77½; Sept., $9.75. Ribs—May, $9.70; July, $9.62½; Sept., $9.57½. Rye—May, 50c; July, 50c. PASSIONISTS LEAVE FRANCE.

Order, in Charge of Paris' Anglo-American Church, Expelled.

PARIS, April 9.—The Passionate Fathers, who had been conducting the Anglo-American Catholic Church here, departed for England today without a demonstration. An early hour was chosen so as to avoid a manifestation.

Quite a number of American and English members of the church had gathered to bid goodby to the fathers. Secular priests immediately took up the work usual during holy week. The services are proceeding uninterruptedly. The Passionists are among the orders expelled by the government.

ST. LOUIS GRAIN MARKETS DECLINE

Although Wheat in Chicago Advanced on Manipulation by Armour Crowd.

FOREIGN NEWS WAS GENERALLY BEARISH

In Corn and Oats Prices Declined on Favorable Weather and Poor Cash Demands.

Grain.

An Armour market in Chicago, where the manipulating machine worked off a large line of shorts and up a higher line of values in wheat, did not prevent a decline in the St. Louis market. There was every reason for a decline, too, as the foreign and domestic information distinctly favored that side. The cables gave a more favorable coloring to the crops abroad and the action of the market, especially of France, and the absence of foreign buying, indicated that the uneasiness lately shown by the foreigners had largely abated. Weather and crop conditions on this side were highly favorable, so far as heard of, and domestic demands were poor. It is elimination of the shorts left in the market that is going on and it looks as though a bearish government report on the crop will be received on a pretty well evened up market. Neither corn or oats hold out inducements to the buyer. The cash situation in both is bad and the weather favors the farmer.

WHEAT—What will we do with it? was the question that worried the speculative fraternity more than European crops and demands or any other condition in the wheat situation. "He" was J. Ogden Armour, and "it" was the wheat market. And "he" appeared to have "it" completely in control. Hence the question. That the feeling was nervous in all domestic speculative centers over the fear of manipulation, now that Armour supposed to have control of 10,000,000 bu he had bought in the past few days in the Chicago market, was evidenced by their higher opening, though the cables were not so strikingly bullish as on yesterday and weather and crop information generally favorable in our own country. The advance abroad had not come up to that on this side the water, Liverpool coming ⅜@⅝d higher and Paris up ⅛c, though Argentine shipments were considerably smaller than a year ago. In winter wheat receipts the volume continued large for season of the year, at St. Louis 43,200 bu arriving, against 13,000 bu one year ago, and at Kansas City 92,800 bu, against 59,200 bu, but at northwestern markets only 183 cars in, though these but 137 a year ago. A further large reduction—120,000 bu—in the local stock had been made, and the shipments from this market were 371,000 bu, of which 221,600 bu by river.

So far as the St. Louis market was concerned the operations of Armour in the Chicago market was not so impressive as it was elsewhere, though freely commented upon. Foreign news was more regarded here, as evidenced by the rather emphatic remark of one trader, who, in response to a question of what he thought about the Armour buying, exclaimed, "Oh, blank Armour! What are French cables?" The "springy" weather had a bearish influence, also, and considerable wheat was for sale, while the late buying for that account was lacking. May opened 1-16c better at 69⅝c, sold at 69½c to 69⅝@69¾c and then off to 69¼c. July opened 1-16c lower at 67¼c and sold up to 67⅝@67½c and down to 67¼c.

Before the selling pressure was over May sold at 69¼c (was offered at 69@69¼c), and July at 66⅞@67c. Then the Armour "bugaboo" was worked on the trade, Chicago announcing that the manipulator had bought several more million, more or less, and as that market advanced St. Louis was affected to the extent that May sold up to 69½@69⅝c and July to 67¼c. This did not hold as before noon reached May had dropped to 69c and July to 67c.

The markets were extremely nervous and unsettled during the rest of the day. Not a bit of encouragement was to be found in advices on legitimate demands, exporters reporting their bids generally lowered and cable reports on foreign crops more favorable, and no export business was heard of. But Armour finally got some of the big shorts on the run, and the advance that made in the Chicago market gave a somewhat stronger close here. May had sold up to 69½@69⅝c again, dropped back to 69¼c, rallied to 69½c, and closed at 69⅜c. July sold at 67c, to 67⅜c and 67⅝@67½c bid, closing at 67⅜c. Sept. was offered at 68c.

Cash market—Received 30 cars local and 18 cars through. A fair demand from local millers, but not much call from outside mills, they taking only a few car lots and none at all from store. The only sale this was 5000 bu No. 2 red at 1c over May loaded. By sample delivered, No. 2 red at 70c West, and 71@71½c East Side; No. 3 red at 68½@69¾c West and 68c East Side. No. 4 quotable at 58c for poor to 67c for choice; No. 2 hard at 70c for ordinary to 73c for fancy Turkey; No. 3 hard at 66c to 72c, selling at 68c to 70½c; No. 4 hard at 60@60½c.

CORN—So few were buyers and so little they wanted that it was an easy job to press prices down at the opening, though the Chicago market held up well in value. Fine weather pretty generally throughout the country had a bearish influence, and the fact that but 48,200 bu had come in here had none. A year ago 32,450 bu arrived. Liverpool was ⅛@¼d higher, but a further increase in Argentine exports reported, though unfavorable weather for harvesting reported there also.

Latest cables reported Liverpool closing ⅜@⅝d higher for the day. Paris unchanged to ¼c better, having lost most the early gain and advances of ½c at Berlin and ⅝c at Antwerp and Budapest. Primary receipts were 367,000 bu, against 260,000 bu one year ago, and shipments 672,000 bu, against 317,000 bu last year. Clearances in flour and wheat were 56,000 bu.

May opened ¼c lower at 39⅝c, and later offered at 39⅝c. July sold at 39⅞@40c, to 39⅝c, latter ½c decline.

A weak market ruled during balance of the session, both May selling off to 39⅜@39½c on a lack of support.

Primary receipts were 282,000 bu, against 195,000 bu one year ago, and shipments 663,000 bu, against 277,000 bu last year. Clearances were 303,000 bu.

To this market there was no rally and May was finally offered at 39¼@39⅜c. The latest trading in both May and July was at 39⅝c.

Cash market—Received 186 sacks and 34 cars local and 19 cars through. Dull and heavy. Little demand from any source and then only for the best cured stock, anything softer or low grade otherwise being almost unsalable. By sample delivered—No. 2 at 39¾@40¼c; No. 3 at 38@38¼c, No. 4 at 34c; No. 2 white at 42@42½c; No. 3 white at 40½@41½c.

OATS—Speculation gave little attention to this grain, but offers to sell July at 28⅝c found no buyers.

Receipts at primary markets were 366,000 bu, against 219,000 bu one year ago, and shipments 818,000 bu, against 270,000 bu last year. At St. Louis 98,850 bu arrived, against 52,650 bu a year ago.

Late in the day July sold at 28⅝c and May was offered at 33½c and that was all there was to the market.

Cash market—Received 55 cars local and 15 cars through, steadier, but dull as local and shipping demands light, many buyers holding off until Monday. By sample delivered—No. 2 at 35@35½c; No. 3 at 33@34c; No. 4 at 32@33c; No. 2 white clips at 38c; No. 3 white at 35½@36½c; No. 4 white at 33@34½c.

RYE—Dull, a few cars selling at 46c for No. 2 and 44c for No. 3 delivered East side.

Trade Topics.

In reply to our cable inquiry last night, was wired Petri, our Liverpool house tells us general prospects of the wheat crop in Europe are very uncertain. Prospects are for a crop rathe smalle than last year, unless favorable weather intervenes. In Russia and Roumania more rain is wanted. In England, Franch and Germany a portion of the crop that was destroyed has been re-seeded. The weather just now is harsh and ungenial. Crop prospects now depend upon the weather.

The Cincinnati Price Current says: "Favorable weather is maintaining wheat conditions and farm work is progressing moderately, though it is still backward. There is more inclination to enlarge corn acreage than oats. Packing of hogs in the West for the week was 330,000 head, against 355,000 last year."

London cables: Argentina marketing has been interfered with my lack of transport facilities. Maize quality shows some falling off. Complaints of damage by rain. Heavy rains in Buenos Ayres and in portions of Santa Fe harvesting interfered with by lack of labor.

Des Moines wires: "Weather perfect and seeding general all over state. South half finish this week. North half by 15th. Ground in fine condition. Some farmers plowing for corn."

The government April crop report will be issued tomorrow at 3 p. m.

The advances in America yesterday caused a higher opening in wheat at Liverpool. During the morning near-by delivery remained unchanged, but July made a further gain on covering by shorts induced by reports of manipulation in Chicago May wheat. An additional cause of firmness was scarcity of offerings. Shorts covering in sympathy with the strength in wheat and fair speculative buying in the distant positions caused the opening advances in corn.

For the week (one day short), the Argentine shipped 2,440,000 bu wheat, where 3,896,000 bu the week before and 1,076,000 bu a year ago. Since January 1 they amount to 27,370,000 bu, compared with 9,232,000 bu for same period last year and 29,936,000 bu in 1900. Corn shipments for week were 209,000 bu, against 104,000 bu last week and 220,000 bu a year ago.

In answer to inquiries made by St. Louis exporters both Berlin and Paris cable that the wheat crop of their respective countries—Germany and France—while not up to last year's condition are fully up to an average.

A cable from one of the largest handlers of Russian and Roumanian wheats says that the prospects for the wheat crop in those countries are favorable.

All the markets of this country and Europe will be closed tomorrow in observance of Good Friday, and the foreign markets will remain closed until Monday or Tuesday. New York and New Orleans cotton markets will adjourn until next Monday.

Argentine visible of wheat 3,760,000 bu, against 1,288,000 bu a year ago and corn, 557,000 bu, against 184,000 bu. Argentine wheat market steady in tone, with good demand for export. Arrivals from interior large and quality continues to give satisfaction. Corn markets continue steady with but moderate export demand.

LIVESTOCK MARKET.

National Stockyards.

CATTLE—Receipts, 800; receipts were exceedingly light. The native supply amounted to around 600 head. Trade on steers was called steady to strong. There was a light supply of butcher stuff and stockers and feeders on which trade was steady. There was a very light run of southern cattle and but few sales were reported up to noon. Trade was generally called steady.

TOM ALLEN'S ESTATE MUDDLED

Executor Refuses to Serve and Public Administrator Has Taken Charge.

Public Administrator Garrard Strode has taken charge of the estate left by Tom Allen, once champion heavy weight pugilist. Simon S. Bass, who in the will was named as the executor, refused to serve. The affairs of the estate are in a muddled condition. Persons who have a bill of sale have possession of the living rooms and an agent of Allen's daughter has charge of the bar.

At the funeral, which took place from Wand's undertaking establishment Wednesday, Mrs. Polly Taylor, Allen's daughter, stood on one side of the bier and Mrs. Tillie Hartgrove on the other. Mrs. Hartgrove is the woman who was said to be engaged to marry Allen, but since his death it is reported she has a husband in England. The pallbearers at the funeral were: Chris Lauff, Jack Fletcher, Charley Daly, Tom Kelly, Andy Kirk, Theodore Neusel, Tom O'Donnell and Gus Ellis.

BANANAS ARE BECOMING SCARCE

St. Louisans Grow Fonder of the Yellow Fruit.

PRICES WILL BE HIGHER SOON

All the Bananas Eaten in St. Louis Come From the Island of Jamaica, Where Giant Corporations Control the Plantations.

Increased consumption of bananas and a scarcity of the supply have caused a sharp increase in the price of the fruit in St. Louis and other large cities of the United States. Fruit commission dealers in St. Louis, however, say they are not as seriously affected by the threatened famine as the dealers in other cities are.

According to one of the largest commission dealers in St. Louis, bananas are becoming more popular every year. A larger quantity of them is used in preparing cooked dishes than formerly, and the appetite of the average citizen for the toothsome fruit in its raw state, he says, more keen.

It is predicted that higher prices will be paid for them in St. Louis during the next three months, but dealers do not expect any difficulty in supplying demands of people who are willing to pay the price.

Nearly all of the bananas that come to the United States are brought from the British West Indian Island of Jamaica, where, during the last few years, many small planters have turned their coffee plantations into banana gardens. Sugar, pimenta, cocoanuts and pineapples, also, have been displaced by the banana in these fields.

The price of bananas is more subject to fluctuations than the other products, but oftentimes the profits are tremendous and the temperament of the native grower generally makes him sanguine that his crop will bring a good price. This year his hopes in this regard are being realized.

In many ports of Jamaica, during the past winter, there has been a partial or complete failure of the banana crop because of drouth. It is estimated that less than a two-thirds supply is coming to the markets of the United States, and much of that is inferior in quality.

The United Fruit Co., the giant corporation that tried to control Jamaican fruit products by a trust and found the undertaking too great for even its tremendous resources, imports more bananas than any other concern. It has branches in Atlantic seacoast cities, with headquarters in New York. This corporation has long leases on large lots of land in Jamaica. Its only competitor is J. E. Kerr of New York. He runs his own steamers and controls many leases. One steamer, which came north recently, brought 26,000 bunches of bananas.

WOMAN'S FIST IN SALESMAN'S EYE

Mrs. R. H. Dreyer Says Solomon Siegelbohn Purposely Annoyed Her.

Disturbing the peace by making himself offensive to Mrs. R. H. Dreyer of 4122 Juniata street was the charge against Solomon Siegelbohn in the City Hall Police Court Thursday morning. The case was continued until Monday.

Siegelbohn was arrested late Wednesday afternoon, after an exciting encounter with Mrs. Dreyer, who struck him in the eye.

Mrs. Dreyer says that during the afternoon she was down town shopping, and noticed several times that a man was following her, and at first paid no attention to him. Then she made her way to Fourth street and crossed her path enough times to make sure that the man was purposely annoying her.

It was on Fourth street, near Pine, that the encounter occurred. Siegelbohn, Mrs. Dreyer says, passed in front of her, almost brushing her clothing, and attempted to open conversation with her. Without warning she struck him.

Brokers from the Stock Exchange took charge of Siegelbohn, while Patrolman John McCormack, who is stationed at the Planters' Hotel, took Mrs. Dreyer into the hotel, and after quieting her learned the cause of the trouble.

Siegelbohn's brother was called and gave bond for his appearance, but in the meantime the alleged masher, with his eye discolored by the blow inflicted by Mrs. Dreyer, was locked in the Chestnut street station in a cell with a negro.

When Dreyer, who is an accountant in the Rialto building, heard of the affair, he went to the police station and wanted access to Siegelbohn that they might settle scores without the assistance of the courts.

Siegelbohn is stopping at the Planters', and denies that he did anything to justify the blow which, he says, surprised him more than it pained him.

EFFORT TO STOP HORSE FATAL

Runaway Animal Tramples One Man to Death and Injures Another Who Tried to Check Him.

An attempt to stop a runaway horse ended fatally for Fred Hinkhaus, and his companion, Caspar Loessler, was seriously hurt.

The two men were at work at Virginia and Fair avenues when they saw a runaway horse coming toward them. The buggy was a covered one, and they could not see whether there was anyone inside or not. Both stepped in front of the horse and tried to stop the animal by motioning at it. When they found this was useless, they jumped to get out of the way, but the horse suddenly swerved in the same direction, and both men were trampled.

Hinkhaus was unconscious when he was picked up. At the City Hospital three hours later he died. Loessler was taken to the hospital, but his injuries are not dangerous. Hinkhaus' family lives at 4237 North Twenty-first street. Loessler lives at 4219 Gano avenue.

The runaway horse, which belonged to Oscar Brinkman of 2127 Fair avenue, was caught after it had run about a mile.
